

CONTENTS

List of Figures & Tables	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction	1
Chapter 1 The Afro-Esmeraldian Décimas —Ecuador: Creolization/Malleability in the Time of Interculturalismo and Neo-Essentialism	9
Chapter 2 Presence of Blackness and Representations of Jews in the Afro-Esmeraldian Celebrations of Semana Santa	37
Chapter 3 From Panacea for Harmonious Race Relations to Ideological Tool for Oppression and National Identity Imagination: Reflections from the Andes on Mestizaje through Time and Space	65
Chapter 4 Afrodescendants, the Multicultural Turn and the “New” Latin American Constitutions and Other Special Legislations: Particularities of the Andean Region by Jean Muteba Rahier and Mamyrab Dougé Prosper	89
Chapter 5 A Glimpse at Afro-Ecuadorian Politics, Influences on and Participation in Constitutional Processes, and State Corporatism	105
Chapter 6 Blackness, the Racial-Spatial Order at Work, and Beauty Contest Politics: Señoras, Mujeres, Blanqueamiento , and the Negra Permitida	121
Chapter 7 Stereotypes of Hypersexuality and the Embodiment of Blackness: Some Narratives of Female Sexuality in Quito, Ecuador	147

Chapter 8	Fútbol and the (Tri-)Color of the Ecuadorian Nation: Ideological and Visual (Dis-)Continuities of Black Otherness from Monocultural Mestizaje to Multiculturalism	175
	Appendix	199
	Notes	207
	Cited References	219
	Index	237