

Contents

List of Figures ix

Preface xi

List of Abbreviations xv

- 1 Introduction: conceptualizing social movements 1
- 2 From the mad to the sane: collective behaviour and its critics 10
- 3 From the rational to the relational: resource mobilization, organization, and social movement networks 42
- 4 From political processes to cultural processes: political opportunity, frames, and contentious politics 77
- 5 From old to new social movements: capitalism, culture, and the reinvention of everyday life 112
- 6 From national to global social movements: network movements, alternative globalization, and new media 151
- 7 From the pretty to the ugly: terrorism, social movement theory, and covert networks 182
- 8 From collective behaviour to misbehaviour: redrawing the boundaries of political and cultural resistance 213
- 9 Conclusion: the shifting terrain of social movements studies 235

Bibliography 249

Index 273