

Contents

Society between Sanctity and Secularity: An Introduction vii

William H. Swatos

Author's Introduction 1

1	Doctoral Dissertations in the Sociology of Religion, 1895–1959	12
	Theoretical and Conceptual Citations in Dissertations in the Sociology of Religion	20
	Who Were Cited as Sociologists of Religion?	26
	Number of Sociology of Religion Citations in the Dissertations	37
	Methods of Data Collection and Analysis Used in the Dissertations	37
	Traditions and Denominations Under Study	40
2	Articles in the Sociology of Religion, 1964–1984	43
	Universities Granting Doctorates to the Authors	46
	How Consolidated Were the Locations for Publishing?	51
	Classical Sociological Theory in the Articles	52
	Citations of Theorists Other than the Classical Theorists	57
	Citing Sociologists of Religion	64
	Theoretical Paradigms and Topics	85
	Methods of Data Collection	91
	Methods of Data Analysis	93
	What Religions Were Being Studied?	96
	Specialties Other Than Sociology of Religion	102
	Conclusion	105
3	Community Studies and the Sociology of Religion	106
	Earliest Studies	111
	Earliest University-Based Studies	113
	Jewish Community Studies	115
	Middletown	121
	Studies of Sects	124
	Mill Towns in the Piedmont	127
	Different Cultures	130
	Rural American Communities	133
	Religion and Community Division	137
	Urban Studies	140
	Overview	145

4 Research Organizations	146
United States Bureau of the Census	146
W.E.B. DuBois and the Atlanta Studies	149
The Interchurch World Movement	151
Committee on Social and Religious Surveys	156
Institute of Social and Religious Research	157
Bureau of Applied Social Research	162
Survey Research Center, University of California, Berkeley	166
U.S. Department of Agriculture	168
University of Michigan Survey Research Center/Detroit Area Study	170
Howard W. Odum Institute for Research in Social Science	170
The National Opinion Research Center	171
Bureau of Social and Religious Research, Garrett Biblical Institute	173
Other Agencies	176
5 Professional Associations	180
American Catholic Sociological Society	181
Association for the Sociology of Religion	189
Religious Research Association	193
Society for the Scientific Study of Religion	198
International Society for the Sociology of Religion	205
Research Committee 22 of the International Sociological Association	206
Association for the Scientific Study of Jewry	206
Summary Overview	208
6 Observations	210
 Appendix I
American Dissertations in the Sociology of Religion, 1895-1959	219
Dissertations Included in the Study	219
Dissertations Unavailable for the Study	226
 Appendix II
Origins of the American Catholic Sociological Society and the American Catholic Sociological Review	227
 References	 230
 Name Index	 251
Subject Index	258