

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	ix
Preface	xi
Introduction: A Quiet Revolution	i

PART I

DIMENSIONS AND ORIGIN OF THE SCHOOLED SOCIETY

1 From Education Revolution to the Schooled Society	23
2 Constructing Culture: Academic Intelligence, Social Status, and Human Rights	41
3 The Incredible Longevity of the Western University	58
4 Mass Education and the Super Research University	83
5 Constructing Reality: Ice Cream, Women's Studies, and the MBA	99

PART II

SOCIETAL CONSEQUENCES OF THE EDUCATION REVOLUTION

6 The Educational Transformation of Work	125
7 Credentialing in the Schooled Society	156
8 The Transformation of Knowledge and Truth Claims	184
9 Failure, Redemption, and the Construction of the Self	219
10 An Educated Polity: The Universal Solvent and the Political Paradox	247
11 An Educated Laity: The Education-Religion Paradox	261

CONTENTS

Conclusion The Schooled Society and Beyond: Ubiquitous, Formidable, and Noisy	275
Notes	303
References	311
Index	339