

Contents

Preface and acknowledgements	v
List of contributors.....	vii
Introduction: burial and social change in first-millennium BC Italy: an agent-focused approach.....	xi
Elisa Perego and Rafael Scopacasa

Section 1: Funerary symbolism and ritual practice: from élite identities to gender, age, personhood and connectivity

1. Theoretical issues in the interpretation of cemeteries and case studies from Etruria to Campania.....	3
Mariassunta Cuozzo
2. Styles of drinking and the burial rites of Early Iron Age Middle-Tyrrhenian Italy.....	31
Cristiano Iaia
3. Potting personhood: biconical urns and the development of individual funerary identity.....	55
Lucy Shipley
4. Somebody to love: gender and social identity in seventh- and sixth-century BC Chiusi	77
Eóin O'Donoghue
5. Women in a warriors' society	97
Amalia Faustoferri
6. Verucchio. The social status of children: a methodological question concerning funerary symbolism and the use of space within graves	111
Giorgia Di Lorenzo, Patrizia von Eles, Lisa Manzoli, Claudio Negrini, Paola Poli and Elena Rodriguez

7. Quid in nomine est? What's in a name: re-contextualizing the princely tombs and social change in ancient Campania	139
Owain Morris
8. Nested identities and mental distances: Archaic burials in Latium Vetus.....	161
Ulla Rajala

Section 2: Identities on the fringe

9. Frontiers of the plain. Funerary practice and multiculturalism in sixth-century BC western Emilia	197
Lorenzo Zamboni
10. Falling behind: access to formal burial and faltering élites in Samnium (central Italy).....	227
Rafael Scopacasa
11. Youth on fire? The role of sub-adults and young adults in pre-Roman Italian Brandopferplätze	249
Vera Zanoni
12. Inequality, abuse and increased socio-political complexity in Iron Age Veneto, c. 800–500 BC	273
Elisa Perego

Finale

13. Shifting perspectives: new agendas for the study of power, social change and the person in late prehistoric and proto-historic Italy.....	313
Elisa Perego and Rafael Scopacasa
Index	339