

Contents

Introduction: Orders of Justification: On the Relationship between Philosophy, Social Theory, and Criticism	1
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---

I. REASON, NORMATIVITY, AND POWER

1. Critique of Justifying Reason: Explaining Practical Normativity	21
2. Noumenal Power	37

II. JUSTIFICATION NARRATIVES AND HISTORICAL PROGRESS

3. On the Concept of a Justification Narrative	55
4. The Concept of Progress	69

III. RELIGION, TOLERATION, AND LAW

5. Religion and Toleration from the Enlightenment to the Post-Secular Era: Bayle, Kant, and Habermas	77
6. One Court and Many Cultures: Jurisprudence in Conflict	105

IV. JUSTICE, DEMOCRACY, AND LEGITIMACY

7. Justice after Marx	121
8. Legitimacy, Democracy, and Justice: On the Reflexivity of Normative Orders	131

V. TRANSNATIONAL JUSTICE

9. Realisms in International Political Theory	143
10. Transnational Justice and Non-Domination: A Discourse-Theoretical Approach	153

Bibliography	173
Index	187