

Contents

Introduction: The End of Political Economy as We Knew It? From Growth Realism to Nomadic Utopianism Stefania Barca, Ekaterina Chertkovskaya, and Alexander Paulsson	1
Part 1: Critical Political Economies	19
1 The Limits of Systems: Economics, Management, and the Problematization of Growth during the Golden Age of Capitalism Alexander Paulsson	21
2 Reorienting Comparative Political Economy: From Economic Growth to Sustainable Alternatives Hubert Buch-Hansen	39
3 The Topicality of André Gorz's Political Ecology: Rethinking Écologie et liberté (1977) to (Re)Connect Marxism and Degrowth Emanuele Leonardi	55
4 Growth and Degrowth in Marx's Critique of Political Economy Max Koch	69
5 The Historical Roots of a Feminist 'Degrowth': Maria Mies's and Marilyn Waring's Critiques of Growth Catia Gregoratti and Riya Raphael	83
Part 2: Emerging Terrains	99
6 Degrowth in Theory, Pursuit of Growth in Action: Exploring the Russian and Soviet Contexts Ekaterina Chertkovskaya	101
7 Countering the Order of Progress: Colonialism, Extractivism, and Re-Existence in the Brazilian Amazon Felipe Milanez	121
8 Degrowth, Devaluation, and Uneven Development from North to South Patrick Bond	137

9	Degrowth in Practice?: Unraveling the Post-Political Effects of Slow City (Cittaslow) Movement in the Anatolian Town of Halfeti- Xalfetî Mine İslar and Gökhan Gülbandılar	157
Part 3: Contested Concepts		173
10	“An Alternative Worth Fighting For”: Degrowth and the Liberation of Work Stefania Barca	175
11	The Imperative of Redesigning Money to Achieve Degrowth Alf Hornborg	193
12	Problematising Self-Sufficiency: A Historical Exploration of the “Autarky” Concept Santiago Gorostiza	209
13	Having, Doing, Loving, Being: Sustainable Well-Being for a Post-Growth Society Tuula Helne and Tuuli Hirvilammi	225
14	The State of Degrowth Giacomo D’Alisa	243
Index		259
About the Contributors		269
About the Editors		273