

ARI J. BLATT AND EDWARD WELCH

France in Flux

Space, Territory,
and Contemporary Culture

LIVERPOOL UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
List of Contributors	xi
Introduction	I
Ari J. Blatt and Edward Welch
1 Angels of History: Looking Back at Spatial Planning in the Mission photographique de la DATAR	13
Edward Welch, University of Aberdeen
2 Disuse and Affect: Post-Industrial Landscapes of France's Labour Lost	35
Derek Schilling, Johns Hopkins University
3 Depth of Field: Farmland and Farm Life in Contemporary French Documentary	63
Alison J. Murray Levine, University of Virginia
4 Sylvain George's Minor Mode, or Cinema at the Margins of its Fragile Community	92
Anna-Louise Milne, University of London Institute in Paris
5 Girlhood Luminosities and Topographical Politics: 17 Filles and Bande de filles	113
Fiona Handyside, University of Exeter

- 6 Les Revenants, Tignes, and the Return of Post-war
Modernisation 141
Catherine E. Clark, Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Brian R. Jacobson, University of Toronto
- 7 French Edgeland Poetics: Topography and Ecology in Jean
Rolin's Les Événements 161
Joshua Armstrong, University of Wisconsin–Madison
- 8 Picturing a Nation of Local Places in the Observatoire
photographique du paysage and France(s) territoire liquide 186
Ari J. Blatt, University of Virginia