

Acknowledgements	9
-------------------------------	----------

Introduction: Embodied Violence and Agency
in Refugee Regimes

Sabine Bauer-Amin, Leonardo Schiocchet, Maria Six-Hohenbalken	11
--	-----------

PART 1: The Terms of Engagement

European Border Regimes: Necropolitics, Humanitarianism and the Democratic Order

Heidrun Frieze	39
-----------------------------	-----------

Mobility as a Political Act

Alessandro Monsutti	63
----------------------------------	-----------

Palestinian Diaspora or Exile?
Affective and Experiential Dimensions of (Im)mobility

Leonardo Schiocchet	71
----------------------------------	-----------

PART 2: Complexity and Selectivity
in Refugee Regimes

Intermingling and Overlapping of Refugee Regimes
in Their Transnational Connections and Agencies: Yezidi Refugees From Iraq

Maria Six-Hohenbalken	111
------------------------------------	------------

On Incorporating Refugee Integration Into Refugee Regime: South Korean Case
Seo Yeon Park	143
The Struggle for Agency of Older Refugees of the Syrian Conflict in Vienna
Sabine Bauer-Amin	167
Reassessing Civil Society Refugee NGOs and the Role of Informal Networks in Turkey
Denise Tan	199
PART 3: Ambiguity and (Un)settlement in Agency
“Young Strong Men Should Be Fighting” – The Vulnerability of Young Male Refugees
Monika Mokre	225
Cleavage and Hijab Among Women from the Syrian Conflict in Brazil
Mirian Alves de Souza	243
Reading the Routes: Exploring Experiences of Place-Making Through Refugees’ Photographs, Walks, and Narratives in a Swedish Town
Katarina Giritli Nygren, Sara Nyhlén, and Rozalie E. Bøge	267
Contributors (in order of appearance)	285