

Contents

| | |
|--|------------|
| Illustration Credits | vii |
| Notes on Contributors | viii |
| 1 Tying Down Loose Space | 1 |
| Karen A. Franck and Quentin Stevens | |
| Part I Appropriation | 35 |
| 2 Found Spaces: Freedom of choice in public life | 38 |
| Leanne G. Rivlin | |
| 3 Open-Ended Space: Urban streets in different cultural contexts | 54 |
| Nisha A. Fernando | |
| 4 Betwixt and Between: Building thresholds, liminality and public space | 73 |
| Quentin Stevens | |
| Part II Tension | 93 |
| 5 Urban Appropriation and Loose Spaces in the Guadalajara Cityscape | 96 |
| Bernardo Jiménez-Domínguez | |
| 6 Urban Slippage: Smooth and striated streetscapes in Bangkok | 113 |
| Kim Dovey and Kasama Polakit | |
| 7 Transforming Public Space into Sites of Mourning and Free Expression | 132 |
| Karen A. Franck and Lynn Paxson | |
| 8 Central Park, the Aesthetics of Order and the Appearance of Looseness | 154 |
| Julia Nevárez | |
| Part III Resistance | 171 |
| 9 Heterotopias and the Experience of Porous Urban Space | 174 |
| Stavros Stavrides | |

Contents

| | | |
|--------------------------|--|------------|
| 10 | Stalker on Location Peter T. Lang | 193 |
| 11 | Dead Zones, Outdoor Rooms and the Architecture of Transgression Gil M. Doron | 210 |
| Part IV Discovery | | 231 |
| 12 | Social Practices, Sensual Excess and Aesthetic Transgression in Industrial Ruins Tim Edensor | 234 |
| 13 | Unruly and Robust: An abandoned industrial river Lynda H. Schneekloth | 253 |
| 14 | Patterns of the Unplanned Urban Catalyst (Philipp Oswalt, Philipp Misselwitz, and Klaus Overmeyer) | 271 |
| | Annotated Bibliography | 289 |
| | Index | 296 |