

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements.....	vii
Introduction	1
Islamic Manuscripts	8
One. Sources	11
The Tarikh-i Barangawi	15
The Work's Author.....	16
Contents and Structure.....	20
The Sources of the Tarikh-i Barangawi	25
Two. The Religious and Social Foundations of Bukharan
Prestige.....	27
Sufi Tradition and Holy Cities in Central Asia.....	29
Bukharan Communities in Imperial Russia: Official
Privilege and Exalted Status.....	43
Bukharan Fashion among Muslims in Russia	64
Three. "Bulghar" Institutions in Bukhara.....	77
"Bulghar" Saints and Legendary Scholars in Central
Asia	77
The Tatar and Bashkir Presence in Bukhara.....	80
Resident "Bulghar" Scholars and Sufis in Central Asia ..	86
Four. The Student Experience I.....	95
The Journey There	98
Arrival and Lodging.....	99
Instructors.....	102
Study Outside of Bukhara	107
Students as Teachers.....	109
Sufi Shaykhs and Their Murids	110
Jalal ad-Din al-Khiyabani.....	113
Ishan-i Pir 'Abd al-Karim ash-Shahrisabzi al-Balkhi	117
Other Sufi Figures.....	119
Curriculum	120
Manuscripts and Literary Activity.....	125

Five.	The Student Experience II	131
	Daily Life and Finances	131
	Health.....	137
	Pilgrimage and Travel	138
	Language Issues and Relations with Bukharans	142
	“Bokharis” in Russia.....	147
Six.	The Decline of Bukharan Prestige in Russia	151
	The Economic and Political Eclipse of Central Asia	151
	Reformist Critics: Qursawi, Fayzkhanov, and Marjani. .	155
	Jadid Critiques of Bukhara.....	160
	Arab Critics of Bukhara and Tatar Reformists.....	170
	Bukharan Decline in Question	174
	From Islamic Reformism to Cultural Revolution	180
	Full Circle: Bukhara as a Rationalist Symbol in Soviet and Post-Soviet Islam	185
	Conclusion.....	191
	Bibliography	195
	Index	205