

List of Contributors vii

List of Figures ix

Introduction 1

Jacqueline Fabre-Serris and Alison Keith

PART I. FROM WORDS TO DEEDS: BETWEEN GENRES

1. War, Speech, and the Bow Are Not Women's Business 15

Philippe Rousseau

2. Women and War in the Iliad: Rhetorical and Ethical Implications 34

Marella Nappi

3. Teichoskopia: Female Figures Looking on Battles 52

Therese Fuhrer

4. Women Arming Men: Armor and Jewelry 71

François Lissarrague

5. Woman and War: From the Theban Cycle to Greek Tragedy 82

Louise Bruit Zaidman

6. Women after War in Seneca's Troades: A Reflection on Emotions 100

Jacqueline Fabre-Serris

7. Love and War: Feminine Models, Epic Roles, and Gender Identity in

Statius's Thebaid 119

Federica Bessone

8. Elegiac Women and Roman Warfare 138

Alison Keith

9. Warrior Women in Roman Epic 157

Alison Sharrock

PART II. WOMEN AND WAR IN HISTORICAL CONTEXT:
DISCOURSE, REPRESENTATION, STAKES

10. War in the Feminine in Ancient Greece 181

Pierre Ducrey

11. To Act, Not Submit: Women's Attitudes in Situations of War in Ancient Greece 200

Stella Georgoudi

12. Women's Wars, Censored Wars? A Few Greek Hypotheses (Eighth to Fourth Centuries BCE) 214

Pascal Payen

13. The Warrior Queens of Caria (Fifth to Fourth Centuries BCE): Archeology,
History, and Historiography 228

Violaine Sebillotte Cuchet

14. Fulvia: The Representation of an Elite Roman Woman Warrior 247

Judith Hallett

15. Women and Imperium in Rome: Imperial Perspectives 266

Stéphane Benoist

16. The Feminine Side of War in Claudian's Epics 289

Henriette Harich-Schwarzbauer

Bibliography 303

Index Locorum 329

Index Nominum 334

Index Rerum 337