

Contents

Foreword by Jean-Baptiste Jeangène Vilmer	vii
Introduction	xv
PART 1. ANIMAL HISTORIES
Building an Animal History	3
Éric Baratay
A Tale of Three Chameleons: The Animal between Science and Literature in the Age of Louis XIV	15
Peter Sablins
The Colonial Zoo	31
Walter Putnam
PART 2. ANIMAL PHILOSOPHIES AND REPRESENTATIONS
The Unexpected Resemblance between Dualism and Continuism, or How to Break a Philosophical Stalemate	49
Florence Burgat
Like the Fingers of the Hand: Thinking the Human in the Texture of Animality	61
Dominique Lestel
Animality and Contemporary French Literary Studies: Overview and Perspectives	75
Anne Simon
PART 3. ANIMAL INTIMACIES
Why "I Had Not Read Derrida": Often Too Close, Always Too Far Away	91
Vinciane Despret

Chercher la chatte: Derrida's Queer Feminine Animality	105
Carla Freccero
Paternalism or Legal Protection of Animals? Bestiality and the French Judicial System	121
Marcela Iacub
PART 4. ANIMALS AND ENVIRONMENT
On Being Living Beings: Renewing Perceptions of Our World, Our Society, and Ourselves	135
Isabelle Delannoy
The Greenway: A Study of Shared Animal/Human Mobility	149
Nathalie Blanc
Wild, Domestic, or Technical: What Status for Animals?	163
Marie-Hélène Parizeau
Bibliography	179
Contributors	193
Index	197