

Contents

A Note on Terms and Conventions	xi
Abbreviations	xiii
Introduction to Elizabeth I's Revels Office	1
The Revels Office	1
Devising and Producing the Revels	15
1. Sir Thomas Cawarden, 1558–1559	32
Gentleman of the Privy Chamber	32
The Revels Office in 1558	42
Court Theatre in 1558–1559	50
Hero of the Reformation	58
2. Sir Thomas Benger, 1559–1572	61
Auditor to the Princess	61
The 1560 Reorganization of the Revels Office	68
Spectacle, Pageantry, and Court Theatre	73
‘last of the poore flock of Hatfield’	89
3. The Interregnum, 1572–1578	96
The Crisis of 1572	96
The Privy Council Inquiry of 1572–1573	102
The Earl of Sussex and Thomas Blagrave	110
The Interim Revels Organization	117
The Court and the Commercial Theatre	125
4. Edmund Tilney: The Expansion of the Master's Powers, 1578–1591	137
Competition for the Mastership	137
‘of Countenance and of credit with the Prince’	139
The 1581 Royal Commission	151
Matrimonial Diplomacy, 1578–1583	154
Consolidation of the Privileged Companies	169
The New Queen's Players and the Boy Companies, 1583–1591	171
5. Edmund Tilney: The Transformation of the Revels Office, 1591–1603	186
The Onset of Paralysis, 1591–1594	186
The Final Reform, 1594–1598	192
The Later Privileged Companies, 1594–1603	200
‘near vnto the Monument of my ffather’	209

6. Afterword: Regulating the Commercial Theatre	219
Appendix 1. Calendar of Court Revels and Spectacles	239
Appendix 2. Officers of the Revels	293
Select Bibliography	295
Index	305