

---

The Anglo- American Media Connection

Jeremy Tunstall and David Machin

T 2763

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

---

List of Tables and Figures	xiv
Introduction	1

PART I      Britain and Other American Media Advantages

1	The USA as Popular Culture Number One	13
2	Brits on the Anglo-American team	16
3	Hollywood Genre Menu	22
4	Multiplication of Video Channels and Programming	32
5	Washington as Media Policy Umpire and Commercial Booster	40
6	Bulking up for Digital: The Vertical Imperative	53

PART II      Britain as Media Number Two to the USA

7	Britain as Number Two in the Anglo-American Media	71
8	World News Duopoly	77
9	Public Service Broadcasting	91
10	British Popular Music and the BBC	97
11	Book Publishing: US–UK Merger	105
12	Advertising Agencies	113

PART III      Britain as Film, Television, and Press Colony

13	Hollywood and British Media Subordination	129
14	Non-citizen Press Moguls: Feuds and Foreign Policy	140

- 15 British Broadcasting Containment and Competition 152
- 16 Mrs Thatcher's Farewell Waive, Sky's Satellite and Cable Monopoly 162
- 17 Will a British BBC Survive until 2022? 174

PART IV Europe Adds Deregulation to Media Nationalism

- 18 France and Germany Copy Italian Accident: Britain Follows Later 189
- 19 Television without Frontiers: Brussels Misreads US Satellites and British Privatization 200
- 20 A Policy for Film Auteurs, but None for Hollywood 215
- 21 Sports Media: Advantage Europe, Game USA 228
- 22 Smaller Countries: Media Nationalism Multiplied 247

PART V Conclusions

- 23 A Win for US Media, not USA 259
- 24 Britain's Anglo-American Media Mirage 264
- 25 Towards Euro- and Anglo-American Media 269

Select Bibliography 276

Index 281

List of Tables and Figures

---

Tables

4.1	Three phases of US video channel multiplication	33
14.1	Acquisitions of British national newspapers by 'foreigners', 1911–1998	141
16.1	Share of all British satellite and cable audience hours, January–December 1996	164
17.1	The UK's three-way launch of digital television, 1998–1999	177
17.2	The BBC bouquets, 1999	183
19.1	Satellite channel home connections across Europe, 1986	208
25.1	The world's 100 largest television companies, 1998	274

Figures

3.1	US media genre inheritance across five video eras	25
6.1	Ownership patterns, 1998	65