

Table of contents

Introduction	7
Dorota Przaszłowicz

I Research Agenda Old and New

Sending Money 'Home': Toward a Transnational History of Migrant Remittances	11
Barbara M. Posadas (Northern Illinois University, DeKalb) and Roland L. Guyotte (University of Minnesota, Morris)
Ethnicity, Inclusion, and Exclusion: Poles in France and Bretons in Paris	27
Leslie Page Moch (Michigan State University)
European Immigrant Poverty in America	37
Stan Nadel (University of Portland, Salzburg Austria Center)
Love in All the Wrong Places: Relating Migration Patterns and Marriage in U.S. Immigration, 1945-2000	55
Suzanne M. Sinke (Florida State University)

II Multicultural Places

Polish Immigrants and Chicago's Progressive Parks: Creating Public Space in the City	65
Dominic A. Pacyga (Columbia College)
The Pitfalls of Macrohistory: The Case of Waterloo, Québec	75
Wolfgang Helbich (Ruhr Universität Bochum)

III The Jewish Experience

Different. Polish and Post-Soviet Jewish Immigrants in New York City	89
Anna Sosnowska (University of Warsaw)
From Oświęcim to Ellis Island: Jewish and Other Transmigrants and the Evolution of Border Controls Along Germany's Eastern Border, 1885-1914	109
Tobias Brinkmann (Penn State University)
Before "The Holocaust": American Jews Confront Catastrophe, 1945-1962	125
Hasia Diner (New York University)

IV Local Immigrant Communities: Polish-American Perspective

Neighbourhood on a Hill: the Traditional Polish American Neighbourhood: Has it Changed Forever? Has it a Future? The Examples of Worcester and Webster, Massachusetts	159
David A. Jones (University of Warsaw)
The Role of Religious Institutions in Building the Polish Community in Windsor, Ontario	169
Agata Rajski (Jagiellonian University)	