

Contents

Introduction	7
Museums in a Digital Culture: How Art and Heritage Become Meaningful
Chiel van den Akker and Susan Legêne
1 Touched from a Distance	13
The Practice of Affective Browsing
Martijn Stevens
2 Visual Touch	31
Ekphrasis and Interactive Art Installations
Cecilia Lindhé
3 Breathing Art	41
Art as an Encompassing and Participatory Experience
Christina Grammatikopoulou
4 Curiosity and the Fate of Chronicles and Narratives	57
Chiel van den Akker
5 Networked Knowledge and Epistemic Authority in the Development of Virtual Museums	75
Anne Beaulieu and Sarah de Rijcke
6 Between History and Commemoration	93
The Digital Monument to the Jewish Community in the Netherlands
Serge ter Braake
7 From the Smithsonian's MacFarlane Collection to Inuvialuit Living History	109
Kate Hennessy
Conclusion	129
Chiel van den Akker
Notes on Contributors	135
Index	139