

CONTENTS

1	Introduction: Phenomenology, Modernism and the Crisis of Modernity	1
	Braiding	1
	Phenomenology as Pre-theory: Reduction and Historicity	2
	Shifts of Attitude: Husserl, Heidegger, Merleau-Ponty	8
	Epiphanic Modernism	12
	The Time When Everything Cracked	17
	Phenomenology, Language and Meaning-Giving	20
	Primordial Faith	23
 2	 On Apples, Broken Frames and Fallenness: Phenomenology and the Unfamiliar Gaze in Cézanne, Stein and Kafka	 41
	Breaking the Frame: Cézanne's Secret Folds and Faithful Apples	43
	Gertrude Stein, Fringed Experience and an Apple	47
	Kafka's Metamorphosis: A Rotten Apple	53
 3	 Earthly Angels and Winged Messengers: Experience and Expression in Hopkins, Stevens and Klee	 73
	Catching Flight: Hopkins's Windhover	74
	Necessary Angels and Half-Way States: Wallace Stevens	82
	'Still Imperfect': Paul Klee's Angelology	90
	Intuitive Appropriation	92

4	Virginia Woolf's Interworld: Folds, Waves, Gazes	105
	Bracketing	106
	'Gigantic Conversation'	108
	Doubling	113
	Bernard's 'Little Language'	116
	Exchanging Secrets: Woolf and Cézanne	121
5	Hyperdialectic: A Modernist Adventure	139
	Stein's 'If I Told Him' and NDT's Shutters Shut	144
	Rhythms of Hyperdialectic: Woolf	148
	Stevens's Never-Ending Meditation	151
	Readiness for Questionability: Kafka	153
	'Man is Half a Prisoner, Half Borne on Wings': Klee, Hopkins	154
	Bibliography	163
	Index	177