

Contents

Christian Alexander Neumann

Introduction. Old Age before Modernity 1

I Representations

Hans-Werner Wahl

Three Key Longings of Humankind Related to Ageing Seen
Through the Lenses of Contemporary Gerontology. Eternal
Youth, Immortality, and Wisdom 33

Luciana Repici

Aristotle's Reflections on Old Age 59

Mary Harlow

Growing Old at Rome 75

Sonja Kerth

"ein krücke was sîn stiure". Literary Perspectives on Old Age and Disability in Medieval Courtly Romances ("Eneas", "Erec",
"Iwein"/"Yvain") 99

Bernard Ribémont

The Representation of Old Age in French Medieval Literature 123

II Social Interactions

François Höpflinger

Ageing and Old Age. Socio-Gerontological Concepts and Approaches 149

Kathrin Liess

Perspectives on Ageing and Old Age in the Old Testament 165

Hartwin Brandt

Generation Conflicts and the Crisis of the Late Roman Republic. Remarks on Sallustius and Cicero 185

José Miguel Andrade Cernadas

Old Age and Generations in Monastic Communities in Northwest Spain 197

Christian Alexander Neumann

Old Age and Rulership. King James I of Aragon and Venetian Doge Marin(o) Falier(o) 211

Monica Ferrari

Feelings of the Stages of Life. The Education of Princes in the Modern Era as a Privileged Observation Point 241

III Corporeality

Paul Higgs

Social and Cultural Gerontology and the Importance of the Ageing Body 263

Lidia Vitale
The Life Cycle. Age from the Perspective of Human Osteoarchaeology	279
 Daniel Schäfer
Proto-Geriatrics. A Subdiscipline of Late Medieval Medicine under the Banner of Humanism?	291
 Daniela Santoro
The Treatment of Old Age at Court. The Kings of Sicily from Roger II to Martin II (11th–15th Century)	311
 Index of Names	333
 Index of Places	341