

Contents

	Acknowledgments	xi
	Introduction	1
Part I: The Backdrop
Chapter 1	Rediscovering Race in the Global Era	7
	Modernity and the “End of Racism” Thesis	9
	Rediscovering Race (I): The Particularity of Race	11
	Rediscovering Race (II): Race and Society	13
	Structured Racism in the Mass Society	16
	Ethnicity, Race, and Racism	19
	Connecting Globalization and Racism:
	Methodological Issues	21
	Conclusion	25
Chapter 2	The Best and the Whitest: Racism and the Middle-Class Social Order, 1945–1975	31
	The Rise of the Middle-Class Social Order, 1945–1975	32
	The Erosion of Jim Crow Racism in the 1940s and 1950s	35
	Suburbanization and the Structuring of Racial Privilege, 1945–1960	37

	Mass Educational Credentials and the Structuring of Racial Privileges	42
	Conclusion: The Structuring of Race and the Middle-Class Social Order	47
Part II: Globalization and Racism
Chapter 3	Market Globalization and Social Crisis	57
	Globalization, Technology, and Markets	58
	Inequality and Market Globalization	63
	Globalization and Immigration	68
	Globalization and Nation-States	71
	The Destabilization of the Middle-Class Social Order	75
	Conclusion: Globalization and Racism	78
Chapter 4	It's "Ours": Globalization and the Racialization of Space	83
	The Creation of Racialized Space in the United States	84
	Globalization and the Unleashing of the White Suburbs	86
	Trends of Globalization Undermining Localism	93
	Localism on a World Scale: Anti-immigrant Politics and Globalization	95
	Confusing the Global and the Local: The U.S. War on Terrorism	102
	Conclusion: Contested Spaces, Contested Identities	104
Chapter 5	It's "Mine": Globalization, Racism, and the Erosion of Social Responsibility	109
	Personal Wealth and Race	111
	Individual Educational Achievement and Racism	115
	The War on Crime, Individual Responsibility, and Racism	121
	Conclusion: Structured Racism in the Era of Globalization	127

Part III: Globalization and the Search for Racial Justice in the United States

	Introduction to Part III: Finding Hope in the Era of Globalization	135
Chapter 6	Possible Futures of Racial Justice in the Global Era	139
	Civil Rights, the Defense of Democracy, and Racial Justice	143
	International Accords, Human Rights, and Racial Justice	147
	Working-Class Solidarity and Antiracist Politics	152
	Ethnic Politics and Globalization	156
	Conclusion: The Possible Futures of Antiracist Politics in the Global Era	160
Chapter 7	Globalization and the Revitalization of the Civil Rights Movement	167
	The Civil Rights Movement and the Middle-Class Social Order, 1955–1975	169
	The Civil Rights Movement in the Era of Globalization	175
	The Relationship between Community Power and State Power in the Era of Globalization	179
	Case Study: The Campaign to Stop Proposition 209 in California, 1994–1996	184
	Conclusion: Finding Hope in a Time of Fear	187
	Selected Bibliography	193
	Index	203
	About the Author	213