

Contents

Preface	vii
Acknowledgements	xv

Part I Law & Politics

1	Michel Foucault and the Obsolescent State: Between the American Century and the Dawn of the European Union	3
	Dario Melossi
2	The Immanence of Law in Power: Reading Foucault with Agamben	13
	Warren Montag
3	The Hybrid Character of “Control” in the Work of Michel Foucault	23
	Alain Beaulieu

Part II Politics & Culture

4	No “Coppertops” Left Behind: Foucault, The Matrix, and the Future of Compulsory Schooling	37
	David Gabbard
5	It Does Too Matter: Michel Foucault, John Coltrane, and Dominant Positions	51
	Tracey Nicholls

Part III Psychiatry

6	Foucault and Psychiatric Power after Madness and Civilization	61
	Mario Colucci

7	From Psychiatry to Bio-Politics or the Birth of the Bio-Security State	71
	Pierangelo Di Vittorio

Part IV    Health Care

8	Genetic Responsibility and Neo-Liberal Governmentality: Medical Diagnosis as Moral Technology	83
	Thomas Lemke
9	The Problem with High-Maintenance Bodies or the Politics of Care	93
	Monique Lanoix

Part V    The French Context

10	Subverting Social Order: Foucault and Derrida on the Role of the Intellectual	107
	Christian Lavagno
11	Foucault and the “Hydra-Headed Monster”: The Collège de Sociologie and the Two Acéphales	115
	Frank Pearce

Notes	139
Index	165
About the Contributors	169