

Contents

Contributing authors	vii
Acknowledgments	xi
PART I: Introduction	1
Consuming Music Together: Introduction and Overview Kenton O'Hara and Barry Brown	3
Music and Emotion in Real Time Tia DeNora	19
PART II: Sharing Music	35
Sharing and Listening to Music Barry Brown and Abigail Sellen	37
Social Practices Around iTunes Amy Volda, Rebecca E. Grinter and Nicholas Ducheneaut	57
PART III: Choosing Music	85
Distributing the Process of Music Choice in Public Spaces Kenton O'Hara, Matthew Lipson, Axel Unger, Huw Jeffries, Marcel Jansen, Peter Macer	87

Promoting Social Interaction in Public Spaces: The Flytrap Active Environment
Andrew Crossen and Jay Budzik	111
PART IV: Mobile Music	129
Investigating the Culture of Mobile Listening: From Walkman to iPod
Michael Bull	131
tunA: Socialising Music Sharing on the Move
Arianna Bassoli, Julian Moore and Stefan Agamanolis	151
Car Drivers Using Sound Pryer - Joint Music Listening in Traffic Encounters
Mattias Östergren and Oskar Juhlin	173
PART V: Music and Dance	191
Digital Dance Hall: The Fan Culture of Dance Simulation Arcade Games
Jacob Smith	193
“Sort Drugs Make Mates”: The Use and Meaning of Mobiles in Dance Music Club Culture
Karenza Moore	211
hpDJ: An Automated DJ with Floorshow Feedback
Dave Cliff	241
PART VI: Consumption as Production	265
Interaction, Experience and the Future of Music
Atau Tanaka	267
Hail to the Thief: The Appropriation of Music in the Digital Age
Teresa Dillon	289
Index	307