

Contents

List of Illustrations

vii

Introduction

1

1. The Public Interpretation of Archaeological Sites

7

2. A Brief History of Mexican Archaeology

31

3. Heritage and Archaeological Tourism in Mexico and Quintana Roo

37

4. Living in the Yucatán Today

51

5. A Discussion of Problems and Potential Remedies

70

6. Mexican Cultural Identity and Patrimony in Quintana Roo

80

7. Public Interpretation at Mexican Museums

91

8. Conclusion

101

Bibliography

105

Index

119

Illustrations

Figure 1. Tulum Archaeological Park

4

Figure 2. Unexcavated mound at T'isil, Quintana Roo

5

Figure 3. Ceremonial plaza at Calakmul

8

Figure 4. Ceremonial plaza at Chichén Itzá

9

Figure 5. Tulum beside the Caribbean Sea

11

Figure 6. Tiendas at Tulum

12

Figure 7. La Iglesia structure, Cobá

16

Figure 8. Entrance signs at Cobá

17

Figure 9. Stela at Cobá

18

Figure 10. Climb down El Castillo, Cobá

18

Figure 11. Bicycle rentals at Cobá

19

Figure 12. El Rey Archaeological Park

21

Figure 13. Facilities at Xcaret Ecoarchaeological Park

23

Figure 14. Beginning of program at Xcaret with actors dressed in costume

27

Figure 15. Guide with tourists at Cobá
29

Figure 16. Licensed tour guide
29

Figure 17. Maya cooperative in Puerto Morelos
63

Figure 18. Museum of the Caste War, Tihosuco, Quintana Roo
96