

Contents

List of Tables and Illustrations	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Note on Transliteration	xiii
1. Introduction	3
2. Taiwan's Seventeenth-Century Rulers: The Dutch, the Spaniards, and Koxinga	19
3. Trading Networks: Taiwan, Southeast Asia, and Coastal China	45
4. British Footprints on Taiwan: Consulates, Trading Firms, and Presbyterian Churches	63
5. A Strategic Vantage Point: The French Campaign in Taiwan	87
6. Late to the Scene: The United States Arrives in Taiwan	105
7. The Roots of the Japanese Empire: The Colonization of Taiwan	128
8. Taiwan During World War II: From Colony to Haven	149
9. Postwar Taiwan: The Growing American Presence and Influence	174
Notes	207
Glossary of Chinese, Japanese, and Taiwanese Characters	235
Bibliography	243
Index	257
About the Author	266

List of Tables and Illustrations

Tables

2.1	Dutch Governors in Taiwan, 1624–1661	23
2.2	VOC's Principal Personnel on Taiwan	25
2.3.	Deployment of Dutch Military Forces in 1654	26
2.4	Spanish Governors in Taiwan, 1626–1642	28
2.5	Census of Indigenous Peoples in Taipei Basin, 1647–1656	32
2.6	Revenues vs. Expenditures of VOC in Taiwan, 1632–1661	38
3.1	Foreign Customs Officials in Taiwan, 1865–1895	61
4.1	The Relative Importance of Taiwan's Four Major Ports	81
7.1	Japanese Governors-General in Taiwan, 1895–1945	132
7.2	Taiwan's Maritime Shipping	143
8.1	Mother Tongue–Speaking Families in Taipei	153
8.2	Japanese/Taiwanese Student Ratio at Taihoku Imperial University	158
8.3	Areas and Cities Occupied by the Japanese during World War II	165
8.4	World War II Prisoners-of-War in Taiwan	170
9.1	U.S. Imports to Taiwan, 1951–1965	184
9.2	U.S. Foreign Aid to Taiwan	185
9.3	Taiwan's Trade Imbalance with the United States	200

Illustrations

	Major Ports of Taiwan	2
2.1	Dutch United East India Company Board Members, Seventeenth Century	21
2.2	Dutch Fort Zeelandia, Built 1632	22
2.3	Dutch Governor in Taiwan	24
2.4	Surviving Sample of St. Matthew in Parallel Dutch and Sinkan Languages	36
3.1	Chinese Immigrants in Taiwan	49

3.2	Eighteenth-Century Trading Junk of Taiwan	51
3.3	Navy Warship of Ch'ing Dynasty	58
4.1	Nautical Chart of Coastal Taiwan, 1850s	73
4.2	Bringing Camphor from the Hills, 1860s	84
5.1	Taiwanese Troops in Training	99
6.1	Governor Liu Ming-Chuan, 1885–1891	124
7.1	Japanese Governor-General Kodama Gentaro, 1898–1906	135
7.2	Chief Civil Administrator Goto Shimpei, 1898–1906	136
7.3	Japanese-owned Sugar Manufacture Company	139
8.1	Entrance of Imperial Taipei University, Founded by Japanese in 1928	157
8.2	School Girls in Exercise During WW II	172
9.1	Expatriation of the Japanese From Taiwan, 1945–1946	175
9.2	American Agricultural Expert in Rural Taiwan, Late 1950s	183
9.3	Shipyard at the Keelung Harbor During the Vietnam War	199