

Contents

List of contributors	xv
Preface by Jane L. Parpart	xx
Acknowledgements for the second edition	xxiii
Acknowledgements for the first edition	xxv
List of abbreviations	xxvii

Introduction: feminist sightings of global restructuring: old and new conceptualizations	1
MARIANNE H. MARCHAND AND ANNE SISSON RUNYAN

PART I
Sightings	25
1 Globalization and its intimate other: Filipina domestic workers in Hong Kong	30
KIMBERLY A. CHANG AND L.H.M. LING
2 Querying globalization: sexual subjectivities, development, and the governance of intimacy	48
AMY LIND
3 Governing gender in neoliberal restructuring: economics, performativity, and social reproduction	66
SUZANNE BERGERON
4 “Where the streets have no name”: getting development out of the (RED)TM?	78
MICHELLE V. ROWLEY

PART II

Sites 99

5 Global restructuring and women's economic citizenship
in North Africa 104

VALENTINE M. MOGHADAM

6 Remittances, gender, and development 129

JONATHAN BACH

7 Women's work unbound: Philippine development and global restructuring 143

PAULINE GARDINER BARBER

8 The "making women productive" strategy: uncovering gendered sightings, sites, and resistances to global restructuring in rural Mexico 163

RAHEL KUNZ

PART III

Resistances 183

9 Globalization and gender at border sites: femicide and domestic violence in Ciudad Juárez 187

KATHLEEN STAUDT

10 Reclaiming spaces of resistance: women's human rights and global restructuring 201

LAURA PARISI

11 Globalization, feminism, and information society 223

GILLIAN YOUNGS

Conclusion: Restructuring the intimate and the global:
towards "post"-neoliberal imperialism? 239

ANNE SISSON RUNYAN AND MARIANNE H. MARCHAND

Postscript: Gender and (post?) financial crisis 245

ANNE SISSON RUNYAN AND MARIANNE H. MARCHAND

Bibliography 250

Index 284