

Contents

List of figures	ix
List of contributors	x
Acknowledgements	xiii

PART I

Setting the stage for the yakeato generation	1
1 Legacies of the Asia-Pacific War: the yakeato (the burnt-out ruins) generation ROMAN ROSENBAUM	3
2 Nihon ni okeru kyō no sengoron: current post-war discourse in Japan SUZUKI SADAMI	24

PART II

Pre-yakeato: provenance of a generation to come	37
3 Ōhara Tomie and A Woman Called En HIROKO KOBAYASHI	39
4 The legacy of Watanabe Kazuo (1901–1975) YASUKO CLAREMONT	57

PART III

The yakeato cohort: offspring of war	75
5 The legacy of the yakeato generation: Oda Makoto's literary social criticism ROMAN ROSENBAUM	77

6	A yakeato poet: Irisawa Yasuo YASUKO CLAREMONT	92
7	Ariyoshi Sawako and Sono Ayako: young women writers of the yakeato generation BARBARA HARTLEY	110
PART IV
	Post-yakeato: the heritage of a generation	131
8	Graphic depictions of the Asia-Pacific War ROMAN ROSENBAUM	133
9	Laughter and tears: the complex narrative of Nosaka Akiyuki's Hotaru no haka (Grave of the Fireflies) HIROKO COCKERILL	152
10	Japanese poetry and the legacies of war LEITH MORTON	164
11	Language and body: Betsuyaku Minoru and the 'Small Theatre movement' (Shōgekijō undō) in the 1960s MASAHITO TAKAYASHIKI	182
12	Kuroki Kazuo's requiem for war CAROL HAYES	198
13	Architecture in the Mono-no-nai-jidai PETER ARMSTRONG	216
14	Summation: children of war YASUKO CLAREMONT	229
	Yakeato research bibliography	238
	Index	245