Contents

Contributors xi

Preface xiii

1. Empowering Settings and Voices for Social Change: An Introduction 1
Kenneth I. Maton, Edward Seidman, and Mark S. Aber

Part I. Empowering Settings

2. Changing Social Settings: A Framework for Action 12
Edward Seidman and Vivian Tseng

3. Empowering Community Settings: Theory, Research, and Action 38
Kenneth I. Maton and Anne E. Brodsky

4. Pursuing Paradox: The Role of Adults in Creating Empowering Settings for Youth 65
Reed W. Larson and Rachel M. Angus

5. Settings and Empowerment 94
Edison J. Trickett

Part II. Giving Voice

6. Voices from the Ground Up: The Use of Narrative in Understanding Recovery from Serious Mental Illness 107
Deborah Salem

7. "I Came to Tell You of My Life": Narrative Expositions of "Mental Health" in an American Indian Community 134
Joseph P. Gone

8. Tales of Terror from Juvenile Justice and Education 155
N. Dickon Reppucci, Jessica R. Meyer and Jessica Owen Kostelnik

9. The Neglected Role of Community Narratives in Culturally Anchored Prevention and Public Policy 173
Hirokazu Yoshikawa and Maria A. Ramos Olazagasti

10. On Voice: Difference, Power, Change 193
J. Eric Stewart

Part III. Retrospect and Prospect

11. Contradictions and Consistencies: Rappaport's Contributions to Community Psychology (1968–2007) 207
Irma Serrano-García

12. Searching for OZ: Empowerment, Crossing Boundaries, and Telling Our Story 232
Julian Rappaport

Index 239