

Contents

List of Illustrations	page xi
Preface	xiii
Introduction	I
1. The Roots and Authenticity of the Surrender Agreements in the Seventh Century	8
Treaties before the Muslim Conquest	10
Local Surrender Agreements during the Roman and Byzantine Period	21
Surrender Agreements Made following the Muslim Conquest	32
Conclusion	57
2. Shurūt 'Umar and Its Alternatives: The Legal Debate over the Status of the Dhimmīs	58
The Dating and the Formation of Shurūt 'Umar	60
Legal Discussions throughout the Eighth and Ninth Centuries	63
The Composition of the General ṣulḥ Documents	68
Conclusion	85
3. The Date and the Ideology of the Ghiyār Code	88
The Sources regarding 'Umar b. 'Abd al-'Azīz's Edict	89
The Ideology behind the Edict	92
The Date of the Adoption of Iranian Dress Codes	96
4. The Enforcement of Shurūt 'Umar	99
Restrictions upon the Dhimmīs prior to al-Mutawakkil	100
The Restrictions Issued by al-Mutawakkil	103
The Long-Lasting Enforcement of al-Mutawakkil's Restrictions	108

5. The Provenance of the Modes of Subordination of Non-Muslims	113
The Status of Minorities in Ancient Near Eastern Societies	114
The Status of Minorities in the Byzantine and Sasanian Empires	116
Muslim and Pre-Muslim Modes of Subordination Compared	121
The Sasanian Origins of the Social Position of Non-Muslims in Islamicate Society	130
The Ideology of the Iranian Class System	137
The Adoption of Sasanian Aristocratic Ethos by the Muslims	141
Conclusion	162
Conclusion	164
Appendix I: Al-Ṭurtūshī's Version of Shurūṭ 'Umar	171
Appendix II: Al-Shāfi'ī's Version of the Pact to Be Accorded to Non-Muslim Subjects	173
Notes	177
Glossary	235
Bibliography	239
Index	255