

Contents

Notes on contributors ix

Introduction: engaging with the world: critical social science in the wake of the ‘big crisis’ of ‘our times’ 1

ANDREA M. MACCARINI

PART I

Social ontology and a new historical formation 9

1 Prolegomenon: the consequences of the revindication of philosophical ontology for philosophy and social theory 11

ROY BHASKAR

2 A morphogenetic-relational account of social emergence:
processes and forms 22

ANDREA M. MACCARINI

3 Reflexive social subjectivities 50

RICCARDO PRANDINI

4 Realist engagements in critical hermeneutics 78

FRÉDÉRIC VANDENBERGHE

PART II

Being human and the adventure of agency in the twenty-first century: towards a sociology of engagement 101

5 Reconceptualizing socialization as reflexive engagement 103

MARGARET S. ARCHER

6	Engagement as a social relation: a leap into trans-modernity	129
	PIERPAOLO DONATI
7	The human being invested in social forms: four extensions of the notion of engagement	162
	LAURENT THÉVENOT
 PART III
	The constitutionalization of the new world: realism and global order	181
8	The new world order: what role for critical realism?	183
	DOUGLAS V. PORPORA
9	Complex governance and Europe's model of subsidiarity	198
	HELMUT WILLKE
	Index	216