

Contents

Citation Information	ix
-----------------------------	----

1. Introduction: Crisis, Movement and Management in Contemporary Globalisations James Goodman & Jonathan Paul Marshall	1
--	---

Section 1 - Management

2. The Hydra Paradox: Global Disaster Management in a World of Crises Bob Hodge	13
3. Communication Failure and the Financial Crisis Jonathan Paul Marshall	25
4. The Rigidity Trap in Global Resilience: Neoliberalisation Through Principles, Standards, and Benchmarks Peter Rogers	41
5. 'Who is Grace?': Affect, Work, and Gender in Bangalore Call Centres Devleena Ghosh	55
6. The 'Green Economy': Class Hegemony and Counter-Hegemony James Goodman & Ariel Salleh	69

Section 2 - Movement

7. Occupy Cosmopolitanism: Ideological Transversalization in the Age of Global Economic Uncertainties S. A. Hamed Hosseini	83
8. Crisis Is Where We Live: Environmental Justice for the Anthropocene Donna Houston	97
9. Global Justice Organising in Australia: Crisis and Realignment after 9/11 Elizabeth Humphrys	109
10. Reinscribing the City: Art, Occupation and Citizen Journalism in Hong Kong Francesca da Rimini	123
11. Religious Globalisms in the Post-Secular Age Erin K. Wilson & Manfred B. Steger	139
Index	155