

Revolt Against Authority

By

Laura Westra

BRILL

LEIDEN | BOSTON

Contents

Foreword XI

Introduction 1

PART 1

The (Il)legality of Protest Movements

- 1 Introduction to the Authority of Law and Social Protest 7
 - Introduction 7
 - The Basis of Authority 8
 - Civil Disobedience or Conscientious Obligation? 12
 - Self-Determination and Legal Protests 18
 - State Authority and the Importance of the Rule of Law 21
 - The Rights of Citizenship and Collective Human Rights 24

- 2 The Occupy Wall Street Movement: Attack in a “Lawless” World? 29
 - Introduction 29
 - The Occupy Movement’s Legal Aspects: Symbolic Speech and Practical Difficulties 32
 - The Geopolitical Aspects of Free Speech 36
 - Expressive Conduct and the Law 40
 - Occupy as Revolt against Law and Injustice 42
 - Collective Human Rights against Authority 45
 - Resistance to Plunder 48
 - Protests, Injustice and the Rule of Law 51

- 3 Non-Governmental Organizations and Social Movements: Substance and Roles 53
 - Introduction 53
 - UNESCO, the Common Heritage of Mankind and the Principled Defense of Humanity’s Arts and Sciences 57
 - The Civil Rights Movement: Restoring Justice in Legality 61
 - Civil Disobedience and Non-Violence 64
 - “Civil Resistance” and the Law 67
 - Citizens’ Resistance and Declining Allegiance to State Sovereignty 70
 - Community over Individuals and Justice 70

| | |
|---|------------|
| The End of Politics and the Rise and Role of Social Movements | 73 |
| Corporate Power and Cosmopolitan Democracy | 74 |
| Corporations, the State and the "Two Constitutions" | 75 |
| 4 International Citizenship under Siege | 79 |
| Introduction | 79 |
| Constructing Global Citizenship | 81 |
| Citizenship, Authority and the Law | 85 |
| Idle No More and the Canadian First Nations: "Frozen Rights"? | 86 |
| The Crown's Obligations: Local Issues or Fundamental Principles? | 88 |
| Civil Disobedience against Environmental Harms: Forceful or Not? | 92 |
| Revolt and Self-Defense beyond the Right to Survive | 94 |
| Citizens' Misinformation and Misguided Activism | 98 |
| Transnational Citizens: Further Considerations beyond their Legal Status | 100 |
| 5 The Limits of the Power of INGOS, Social Movements, and Associations, and the Authority of Law | 103 |
| Introduction | 103 |
| The Security Council and the Mandates and Principles of the UN Charter | 104 |
| The Weakened United Nations and the Struggles of the "Multitude" | 107 |
| The Collective and the "Multitude" | 110 |
| The Commons and the Collective | 111 |
| The Multitude and the "Common" | 115 |
| Protest for the Rule of Law | 117 |
| Illegalities Sustain Protests: Structural Violence against Society | 120 |
| Self-Defense? The Moral Response to "Threats" | 121 |
| Self-Defense and Protests against Violence in International Law | 124 |
| Concluding Thoughts for Part I | 127 |

PART 2

Victims of Structural Violence

| | |
|---|------------|
| 6 Victims of "Non-Intimate Violence" and the Law | 133 |
| Introduction | 133 |
| What is Protected by International Human Rights Charters and Jus Cogens Norms? The Question of Shue's "Basic Rights" | 135 |
| Galtung on Structural/Cultural Violence | 140 |
| Conclusions | 413 |

- 7 Victims of Human Rights Law and of Legal Persons: Where Justice and Equal Rights Do not Apply 145
- Introduction: The “Original Sin” 145
- Corporate Responsibility and Accountability 149
- Multinational Corporations: Their Nature, Their Role, and Their Victims 154
- Crimes against Humanity? The Principles of Nuremberg and the Victims of Corporate Crimes 158
- Nuremberg and Equality: Victims of Non-Observance of Principles 160
- Victim Protection and Corporate Rights: Deterrence or Compensation? 163
- Victims of Corporate Power and Inequality 165
- Victims of “Toxic Trespass” 166
- 8 Victims of Legal Bombardments, Drone Attacks and Other Forms of Collateralism 170
- Introduction 170
- International Law Eliminated and Betrayed: The Case of Bombardments as Unlawful Means of Combat 172
- Non-combatant Immunity and the Victims of Collateralism 173
- Victims of Illegal Weapons, Indiscriminate Means of War, and Environmental Hazards 175
- Victims of Drone Attacks 177
- The “War on Terror” and Its Victims 179
- Victims of the Conduct of War 181
- State Terrorism and Its Victims 183
- Aggression and Terrorism in International Law from 1972 to 2005: Working on an Impossible Definition 183
- One Source: Two Major Global Phenomena 186
- The Issues: Terrorism and Collective Human Rights 188
- More Victims of State Terrorism and Counter-terrorism Measures 191
- George W. Bush “Indictment for Torture” 193
- Khalid El-Masri and the Case of Extraordinary Renditions 196
- The Background of “Extraordinary Renditions” and Some International Implications of the “CIA’s Long-Term Detainees” 199
- The Canadian Position: Maher Arar and State Interests 200
- Concluding Thoughts on “Abandoning the Victim” 201
- “Abandoned” Victims in Other Countries 204

| | |
|--|----------------|
| 9 Responsibility to Protect or Obligation to Prevent: Whose Responsibility? | 207 |
| Introduction | 207 |
| The Argument of the Previous Chapters: Victims in a Lawless World | 208 |
| Legal Redress for Victims? | 210 |
| Responsibility to Protect for Collective Obligations | 212 |
| Sovereignty as Responsibility? | 214 |
| Responsibility to Protect: Downward Spiral or Best Hope for Victims? | 216 |
| The "Crime of Silence" and the Activities of the Russell Tribunal on Palestine | 220 |
| The Responsibility of Global Civil Society | 225 |
| The "Criminalization of Dissent" | 228 |
| 10 Current Changes and Concluding Thoughts | 234 |
| Current Changes: Positive and Negative | 234 |
| Concluding Thoughts | 239 |
| Appendix I Cases | 241 |
| Appendix II Documents | 243 |
| References | 246 |
| Index | 263 |