

Contents

List of illustrations	vii
List of acronyms and abbreviations	viii
Series Editor's Introduction	ix
Preface	x
1 Introduction: irregular migration, women and Malta	1
Understanding irregular migration trends	4
'Hanging out' with Somali refugee women in Malta	11
Malta: a frontline EU member state	18
2 The securitization of migration: deterring, punishing and reducing the aggregate risk of global mobility	28
Globalization as 'unbundling' sovereignty	29
The securitization of migration	38
Crimmigration — criminal justice practice and refugees	50
3 Regimes in conflict: refugee protection and the securitization of migration — a gendered analysis	57
The refugee protection legal framework	58
Legal frameworks in conflict: tensions between refugee protection and the securitization of migration	66
4 Violent and circuitous pathways: women's experiences in exiting Somalia	82
Protracted conflict in Somalia	83
The EU's approach to Somalia	88
Women's decision-making about exit	91

5	From Somalia to Malta: violence and survival in transit	106
	Refugee camps and insecurity en route to Malta	108
	'It depends' — key variables influencing women's experiences of transit to Malta	110
6	Punishment for 'crimes of arrival': women's experiences of Malta	132
	Legal and administrative punishment of refugee women in Malta	132
	Punishment in the social sphere: inadequate accommodation, social exclusion and worsening health outcomes	147
	Economic marginalization	160
7	When will the journey end? Cycles of containment and control in selecting individuals for onward migration	166
	Dublin II Regulation — disrupting, containing and punishing irregular migration	167
	Relocating 'Maltese' refugees — EUREMA (Intra-EU Relocation Programme Malta)	172
	US refugee resettlement program	174
	Assisted voluntary return	178
	Family reunification	178
	Deportation	180
	Smuggling and trafficking from Malta	183
8	Regimes in conflict: the impact of the securitization of migration on refugee women — a humanized account	187
	Tension 1: regimes of non-entrée at exit	187
	Tension 2: warehousing in transit and durable solutions	189
	Tension 3: diluted rights and entitlements upon arrival — fostering social exclusion and destitution	191
	Tension 4: mandatory detention as an instrument of punishment upon arrival	196
	Tension 5: disrupting onward migration and the potential for refoulement	198
	The geo-strategic importance of Malta for the EU	201
	The securitization of migration — a humanized account	202
	Bibliography	204
	Index	232