

Contents

List of Tables	xi
List of Figures	xii
List of Graphs	xiii
Acknowledgements	xiv
Foreword by Judit Bokser Liwerant	xvi
Introduction	1
1 An International Analysis of Jewish Youth	1
2 Empirical Surveys	3
2.1 Israel Experience Tour Participants	3
2.2 Taglit-Birthright Israel	4
2.3 US Jewish Summer Campers and Counselors	4
2.4 Bnei Akiva Youth Movement Members	5
2.5 French Youth Movement Counselors	5
2.6 Israeli State School Students	5
2.7 Young Adults in Eastern Europe	6
3 Data Analysis Techniques	6
3.1 Similarity Structure Analysis	7
3.2 Discriminant Coefficient	8
4 Basic Demographics	9
4.1 Immigration Patterns	9
4.2 Current Geographic Distribution	11
4.3 Acculturation	13
1 Jewish Identity	16
1 The Question of Identity	16
2 Socio-Historical Context of Contemporary Jewish Identity	18
2.1 Secularization and Religious Compartmentalization	19
2.2 The Shoah	20
2.3 Nationality and Transnationalism	21
3 Identity in Adolescence	22
4 Components of Jewish Identity: A Cognitive Understanding of Jewish Identity	23
4.1 Most Prevalent Components	27
4.2 Structural Relationships among Components of Identity	31
5 Symbols of Jewish Identity	34
5.1 Diaspora Youth—Israel Experience Participants	35
5.2 Israeli General State School Students	38

2	Leisure Time Activities	41
1	Leisure and Social Identity	41
1.1	Leisure in Adolescence	42
1.2	Core and Peripheral Activities	43
1.3	Leisure in Jewish Culture	45
2	Leisure among Contemporary Jewish Youth	46
2.1	Most Prevalent Activities	47
2.2	Most Important Activities	48
2.3	Differences by Nationality	49
2.4	Change Over Time	50
2.5	Early Adolescence vs. Young Adulthood	51
2.6	Gender and Leisure	52
2.7	Religiosity and Leisure	53
2.8	Leisure and Ethnic Background	54
3	Jewish Community and Culture	55
3.1	Friends and Family	55
3.2	Youth Movements and Organizations	57
3.3	Community Participation	60
4	Structural Analysis of Leisure Activities	60
4.1	Israel Experience Participants: A Cross-Cultural Comparison	61
4.2	Summer Camps: Differences by Denomination and Role	62
4.3	Israeli General State School Students: National Identity and Leisure	63
5	Conclusion: Jewish Social Identity Expressed in Leisure Time	64
3	General Values among Jewish Youth	67
1	Most Important Values	71
1.1	Israel Experience Participants	73
1.2	Bnei Akiva Members	75
1.3	American Jewish Summer Camps: A Denominational Comparison	76
1.4	Counselors and Campers: Impact of Age	78
1.5	Israeli State School Students	79
1.6	Jewish Young Adults in Eastern Europe	81
2	Materialistic Values	81
3	Academics	83
4	Honoring Parents	85
5	Altruistic Values	86
6	Conclusion: Post-Materialistic Values and Jewish Identity	89

4 Jewish Values	92
1 Religious Values	93
2 Endogamy	95
3 Jewish Peoplehood	101
3.1 Feeling Connected to Jewish People	102
3.2 Connection to World Jewry as a Component of Identity	104
4 Conclusion: Reflections on Jewish Peoplehood as a Value	104
5 The Holistic Organization of Values	111
1 Typologies of Values	111
2 Structure of Values among Israel Experience Participants	114
2.1 National Sub-Groups in the Structure of Values	116
3 US Summer Camp Participants	117
4 Israeli Students	118
5 Conclusion: Towards a Typology of Values Among Jewish Youth	121
6 Relationship of Diaspora Jewish Youth to Israel	122
1 Historical Context	122
1.1 Stages of the Contemporary Israel-Diaspora Relationship	123
2 Emotional Connection to Israel	125
2.1 Feeling Close to Israel	125
2.2 Relationship to Israel as Component of Identity	126
3 Visits to Israel	126
3.1 Israel Experience Tours	127
3.2 Taglit-Birthright Israel Tours	130
3.3 Long-Term Programs	133
3.4 Multiple Trips	139
3.5 Family Vacations	139
4 Envisioning a Future in Israel	141
4.1 Aliyah	142
4.2 Intention to Return	143
4.3 Desire to be Israeli	146
5 Images of Israel	147
5.1 Most Prevalent Images	147
5.2 Structural Analysis	150

7 Israeli Youth: Homeland, Diaspora, and Global Identity	154
1 Being Israeli	154
1.1 National Pride	154
1.2 Intention to Stay in Israel	156
2 Connection to Diaspora Jews	158
2.1 Israelis Abroad	161
Epilogue: Towards a Theory of Global Jewish Youth Studies	164
1 General Well-Being	165
2 The Quest for Identity Formation	167
3 Linked Yet Distinct	167
4 Peoplehood, Zionism, and Global Jewish Identity	168
5 Stability Over Time	172
Afterword by David Zisenwine	175
Appendix A: Relevant Questionnaire Items	177
Appendix B: Supplementary Data	186
Bibliography	244
Subject Index	269
Names Index	273