

CONTENTS

Introduction	1
1 Classic sociological conceptions of knowledge	7
2 Knowledge about knowledge	11
Attributes of knowledge	12
Knowledge as a capacity to act	22
Knowledge and information	25
Practical knowledge	37
Additional knowledge	40
The uneven development of knowledge	47
The limits of the growth of knowledge	51
A sociological concept of knowledge and its context	52
3 Policing knowledge	59
The self-realization of knowledge	61
The self-protection of knowledge	68
Superfluous knowledge	74
4 Forms of knowledge	78
Everyday knowledge	80
The power of everyday knowledge	87
Indigenous or traditional knowledge	103
Tacit knowledge	108

5	Functions of knowledge	116
	Knowledge as power and authority	118
	The power of ideas	120
	Knowledge and the economy	127
	Knowledge as property and public good	131
6	The benefits of knowledge	142
	The distribution of knowledge	146
	Knowledge, power and participation	153
	Knowledge societies	156
	BIBLIOGRAPHY	162
	INDEX	182