

Contents

Notes on Editors and Contributors

vii

Acknowledgements

xiii

Introduction: Reflecting on the Embodied Intersections of Eating and Caring

1

Anna Lavis, Emma-Jayne Abbots and Luci Attala

PART I EATING TO CARE: PROXIMITIES AND PRODUCTIONS

1 Multiculturalism as Work: The Emotional Labour of Ethnic Food Tour Guides

25

Rick Flowers and Elaine Swan

2 Is Sharing Caring? Social Media and Discourses of Healthful Eating

45

Signe Rousseau

3 Caring about Careless Eating: Class Politics, Governance and the Production of Otherness in Highland Ecuador

69

Emma-Jayne Abbots

PART II EMBODIED ENCOUNTERS BETWEEN EATING AND CARING

4 Careful Starving: Reflections on (Not) Eating,
Caring and Anorexia

91

Anna Lavis

5 The Sweetness of Care: Biographies, Bodies and Place

109

Tanya Zivkovic, Megan Warin, Vivienne Moore, Paul Ward, Michelle Jones

6	Food, Weight and Care in the Consultation Antje Lindenmeyer	127
---	---	-----

PART III CARING TO EAT: DISTANCES AND (DIS)CONNECTS

7	Placing Security: Food, Geographical Knowledge(s) and the Reproduction of Place(less-ness) Benjamin Coles	151
8	Configuring Relations of Care in an Online Consumer Protection Organization Karin Eli, Amy K. McLennan and Tanja Schneider	173
9	Children's Engagements with Food: An Embodied Politics of Care through School Meals Mónica Truninger and José Teixeira	195
	Afterword: The Everyday Biopolitics of Care-full Eating Michael K. Goodman	213
	Index	221