

Contents

Notes on the Contributors	ix
Foreword by Joanna Thornborrow	xii
Editors' Preface	xiv
Pia Pichler and Eva Eppler
1 Theoretical Issues for the Study of Gender and Spoken Interaction Deborah Cameron	1
2 Doing Gender Against the Odds: A Sociolinguistic Analysis of Educational Discourse Joan Swann	18
3 Airhostess Legs and Jealous Husbands: Explorations of Gender and Heterosexuality in 10–11 Year-olds' Conversations Janet Maybin	42
4 Now You See Me, Now You Don't: Adolescents Exploring Deviant Positions Anthea Irwin	63
5 'All I've gotta do is wank on about some bollocky poem': Cool and Socially Aware Positions in the Talk of Private School Girls Pia Pichler	87
6 'A group of lads, innit?' Performances of Laddish Masculinity in British Higher Education Siân Preece	115
7 Boys' Talk: Hindi, Moustaches and Masculinity in New Delhi Kira Hall	139

8	'It's a blokes' thing': Gender, Occupational Roles and Talk in the Workplace Susan McRae	163
9	Men, Masculinities and Leadership: Different Discourse Styles at Work Janet Holmes	186
10	Four Women, Two Codes and One (Crowded) Floor: the Joint Construction of a Bilingual Collaborative Floor Eva Eppler	211
	Index	235