

Contents

1	Emerging Technologies for Diagnosing Alzheimer's Disease: Innovating with Care	1
	Marianne Boenink, Harro van Lente, and Ellen Moors
Part I	Biomedical Research on Alzheimer's Disease Diagnostics: Background and Trends	19
2	The Diagnosis and Treatment of Alzheimer's: Are We Being (Ir)responsible?	21
	Peter J. Whitehouse
3	On Short Cuts: The Complexity of Studying the Early Diagnosis and Prevention of Alzheimer's Disease	41
	Annette Leibing
4	Biomarkers for Alzheimer's Disease: Searching for the Missing Link Between Biology and Clinic	63
	Marianne Boenink

5	Care and Responsibility in Building Futures for Alzheimer's Disease Research	83
	Richard Milne and Shirlene Badger
Part II	Diagnosing Alzheimer's Disease: Current Practices	101
6	Grey Matters: Emergent Biomarkers and Good Alzheimer's Diagnostics	103
	Anna Laura van der Laan
7	Understanding Cognitive Screening Tools: Navigating Uncertainty in Everyday Clinical Practice	123
	Julia Swallow
8	Testing Memory, Shifting Responsibility: Internet-Based (Self-) Diagnostics of Alzheimer's Disease	141
	Claudia Egger and Sally Wyatt
Part III	Alzheimer's Disease: Multiple Realities and Concerns	163
9	Making Alzheimer's Disease Matter: The Politics and Interferences of Different Practices Concerning AD	165
	Ingunn Moser
10	Dikes and Dementia: How Multiple Framings of Dementia Coexist During the Development of a National Dementia Strategy	185
	Yvonne Cuijpers

11	Responsible Innovation: The Case of Alzheimer Diagnostics	205
	Jeannette Pols and Amade M'charek
Part IV	Assessing Diagnostic Innovations	225
12	Informally Regulated Innovation Systems: Challenges for Responsible Innovation in Diagnostics	227
	Fiona A. Miller, Robin Z. Hayeems, and Stuart Hogarth
13	Valuing Diagnostic Innovations: Towards Responsible Health Technology Assessment	245
	Ellen Moors and Alexander Peine
14	Diagnosing Alzheimer's Disease: How to Innovate with Care	263
	Marianne Boenink, Harro van Lente, and Ellen Moors
	Index	277