

Acknowledgments xxi

Foreword: The Politics of "Negro Folklore" by Henry Louis Gates Jr. xxiii

Introduction: Recovering a Cultural Tradition by Maria Tatar liii

AFRICAN TALES

I MAKING SENSE OF THE WORLD WITH ANANSI:

STORIES, WISDOM, AND CONTRADICTION 3

How the Sky God's Stories Came to Be Known as Spider Stories 9

Rabbit Wants More Sense 13

How Wisdom Came into the World 14

The Two Friends 15

How It Came About That Children Were (First) Whipped 18

How Contradiction Came to the Ashanti 21

II FIGURING IT OUT:

FACING COMPLICATIONS WITH DILEMMA TALES 25

Who Should Marry the Girl? 27

Trackwell, Divewell, Breavewell 28

A Vital Decision 28

The Story of the Four Fools 31

III ADDING ENCHANTMENT TO WISDOM:

FAIRY TALES WORK THEIR MAGIC 33

The Story of Demane and Demazana 35

The Tail of the Princess Elephant 37

The Maiden, the Frog, and the Chief's Son 40

Adzanumee and Her Mother 45

The Story of the Cannibal Mother and Her Children 47

Tsélané and the Marimo 50

IV TELLING TALES TODAY:

ORAL NARRATIVES FROM AFRICA 53

The Filial Son 56

Men Deceive Women 57

Know Your Relatives or Else You'll Be Mistaken for a Slave 59

Which of the Three Men Was the Most Powerful? 62

AFRICAN AMERICAN TALES

I DEFIANCE AND DESIRE:

FLYING AFRICANS AND MAGICAL INSTRUMENTS 65

FLYING AFRICANS 73

The Flying Man 73

All God's Chillen Had Wings 73

All God's Chillun Got Wings 77

Swing Low, Sweet Chariot 79

Now Let Me Fly 80

Little Black Sambo from Guinea 81

Flying Africans 83

MAGIC INSTRUMENTS 84

How The Hoe Came to Ashanti 84

The Do-All Ax 86

II FEARS AND PHOBIAS:

WITCHES, HANTS, AND SPOOKS 95

WITCHES 100

Skinny, Skinny, Don't You Know Me? 100

Skin Don't You Know Me? 100

The Cat-Witch 101

Witches Who Ride 103

Out of Her Skin 104

Macie and the Boo Hag 105

HANTS AND SPOOKS 108

The Headless Hant 108

In the Name of the Lord 110

The Girl and the Plat-Eye 111

The Jack-o'-My-Lantern 112

III SPEECH AND SILENCE:

TALKING SKULLS AND SINGING TORTOISES 113

The Talking Skull 115

The Skull That Talked Back 116

Dividing Souls 117

Talking Bones 118

Talks Too Much 119

The Hunter and the Tortoise 120

What the Frog Said 122

Pierre Jean's Tortoise 124

The Talking Turtle 127

John and the Blacksnake 129

Farmer Mybrow and the Fairies 131

IV SILENCE AND PASSIVE RESISTANCE:

THE TAR-BABY STORY 133

Spider and the Farmer 143

Tale of Ntrekuma 146

Tar Baby 147

De Wolf, De Rabbit, and De Tar Baby 149

The Story of Buh Rabbit and the Tar Baby 153

The Wonderful Tar-Baby 155

How Mr. Rabbit Was Too Sharp for Mr. Fox 157

Tar Baby 159

Tar Baby 161

Anansi and the Tar Baby 162

The Rabbit and the Tar Wolf 163

The Rabbit and the Tar Wolf (Second Version) 164

Buh Wolf, Buh Rabbit, and de Tar Baby 165

V KINDNESS AND TREACHERY:

SLIPPING THE TRAP 167

Gratitude 169

An Example of Ingratitude 172

The Boy and the Crocodile 172

Mr. Snake and the Farmer 174

The Tortoise and the Toad 176

VI JOEL CHANDLER HARRIS AND THE UNCLE REMUS TALES 177

Uncle Remus Initiates the Little Boy 198

The Sad Fate of Mr. Fox 201

How Spider and Kawku Tse Killed the King's Cows and Took His Wives
(Africa) 206

Mr. Rabbit Grossly Deceives Mr. Fox 209

Rabbit Makes Wolf His Horse (South Sea Islands) 213

Brother Rabbit's Love-Charm 214

Brother Rabbit's Laughing-Place 218

Brother Rabbit Doesn't Go to See Aunt Nancy 226

The Adventures of Simon and Susanna 229

VII FOLKLORE FROM THE SOUTHERN WORKMAN AND THE JOURNAL OF AMERICAN FOLKLORE 235

Brer Rabbit's Box, with Apologies to Joel Chandler Harris 240

The Donkey, the Dog, the Cat and the Rooster 242

Jack and the King 244

Plantation Courtship 246

Echoes from a Plantation Party 247

Hags and Their Ways / The Conquest of a Hag 252

Why the Clay Is Red 256

Fish Stories 257

Two Ghost Stories 260

Haunted House, Buried Treasure, The Six Witches 262

The Witch Cats 267

The Boy and the Ghost 268

Mr. Claytor's Story and Mrs. Spennie's Story 269

Playing Godfather, Flower of Dew, and Soul or Sole 271

VIII FOLKTALES FROM THE BROWNIES' BOOK 275

The Story of "Creasus" 279

The Twin Heroes 288

Chronicles of Br'er Rabbit 294

Br'er Rabbit Wins the Reward 295

Br'er Rabbit Learns What Trouble Is 296

How Mr. Crocodile Got His Rough Back 297

How Br'er Possum Learned to Play Dead 302

Yada: A True African Story 308

IX ZORA NEALE HURSTON COLLECTS AFRICAN AMERICAN
FOLKLORE 313

Franz Boas, Preface to Mules and Men	323
From Zora Neale Hurston, Works-in-Progress for The Florida Negro	324
From Zora Neale Hurston, "Negro Folklore"	324
From Zora Neale Hurston, "Culture Heroes"	325
From Zora Neale Hurston, "Research"	325
How the Cat Got Nine Lives	326
"Blood Is Thicker Than Water" and Butterflies	329
When God First Put Folks on Earth and Why Women Always Take Advantage of Men	331
Why de Porpoise's Tail Is On Crosswise and Rockefeller and Ford	337
Anansi and the Frog	338
The Orphan Boy and Girl and the Witches	339
Jack and the Devil	341
King of the World	345

X LESSONS IN LAUGHTER:

TALES ABOUT JOHN AND OLD MASTER 349

John de First Colored Man	352
"Member Youse a Nigger!"	353
Catching John	355
The Mojo	356
How?	357
John Outwits Mr. Berkeley	358
Old Boss and John at the Praying Tree	362
Old Master and Okra	364
A Laugh That Meant Freedom	366
How Buck Won His Freedom	368
Voices in the Graveyard	369
Swapping Dreams	370
How John Stopped His Boss-Man from Dreaming	371

John and the Constable 373
Old John and the Master 375

XI HOW IN THE WORLD?

POURQUOI TALES 377

Why We See Ants Carrying Bundles as Big as Themselves 378

Why the Hare Runs Away 380

Tortoise and the Yams 382

What Makes Brer Wasp Have a Short Patience 384

De Reason Why de 'Gator Stan' So 386

Why the Nigger Is So Messed Up 388

Two Bundles 388

Compair Lapin and Madame Carencro 390

XII BALLADS:

HEROES, OUTLAWS, AND MONKEY BUSINESS 393

John Henry 397

Annie Christmas 406

Stagolee 409

Frankie and Johnny 414

Railroad Bill 418

The Titanic 421

The Signifying Monkey 424

XIII ARTISTS, PRO AND CON:

PREACHER TALES 429

How the Brother Was Called to Preach 431

The Farmer and the G.P.C. 433

Jump on Mama's Lap 434

Deacon Jones' Boys and the Greedy Preacher 434

Poppa Stole the Deacon's Bull 436

The Haunted Church and the Sermon on Tithing 438

Old Brother Tries to Enter Heaven 440

XIV FOLKLORIC COUSINS ABROAD:

TALES FROM CARIBBEAN AND LATIN AMERICAN
CULTURES 445

The Oranges 446

The President Wants No More of Anansi 449

The Night Beauty 450

Man-Crow 452

Words Without End 455

Why People Do Not Live Again After Death 456

The Man Who Took a Water Mother for His Bride 457

The Girl Made of Butter 460

Tiger Softens His Voice 462

A Boarhog for a Husband 465

XV SOMETHING BORROWED, SOMETHING BLUE:

FAIRY TALES 469

Cinderella 470

Mr. Bluebeard 471

The Chosen Suitor: The Forbidden Room 473

The Chosen Suitor: The Forbidden Room (Second Version) 474

The Singing Bones 476

The Singing Bones (Second Version) 477

The Murderous Mother 479

The Stolen Voice 479

The Mermaid 481

The Big Worm 483

The Talking Eggs 484

Ramstampeldam 486

King Peacock 487

PREFACES TO COLLECTIONS AND MANIFESTOS ABOUT COLLECTING
AFRICAN AMERICAN LORE 491

William Owens, "Folklore of the Southern Negroes" 491

Joel Chandler Harris, Introduction to Nights with Uncle Remus (1883) 495

Anonymous, "Word Shadows" 500

Alice Mabel Bacon, "Folk-Lore and Ethnology Circular Letter" and Letters in Response to the Call 503

William Wells Newell, "The Importance and Utility of the Collection of Negro Folk-Lore," and Anna J. Cooper, "Paper" 511

Zora Neale Hurston, "High John de Conquer" 519

Sterling A. Brown, "Negro Folk Expression" 530

POETS AND PHILOSOPHERS REMEMBER STORIES:

MEDITATIONS ON AFRICAN AMERICAN LORE 543

IMAGE GALLERY A:

TALE-TELLING SITES: AT HOME AND IN COMMON SPACES 565

IMAGE GALLERY B:

TALE-TELLING SITES: PLACES OF LABOR 577

IMAGE GALLERY C:

ILLUSTRATED POEMS BY PAUL LAURENCE DUNBAR 587

IMAGE GALLERY D:

JOEL CHANDLER HARRIS AND THE UNCLE REMUS TALES 595

BIBLIOGRAPHY 627