

Contents

List of abbreviations	viii
1 Introduction: homeland security, the US polity, and social dynamics	1
2 Politics, the state and law: a strategic-relational approach	11
3 11 September 2001: a social, political and legal charting	27
4 Heralding a new politics: the war on terror discourse	46
5 A blueprint of power: legislating counterterrorism	67
6 Counterterrorism legislation and the law-form	90
7 The Act and the state: implementation, friction, resistance	102
8 Department of homeland security and police restructuring	117
9 'Total intelligence, intelligence-led policing, 'totalitarian' state?	136
10 The political significance of intelligence: government by experts	151
11 Citizen corps: homeland security citizenship	169
12 Resistance to homeland security	184
13 Repression	196
14 Homeland security: capital in full armour	208
Bibliography	222
Index	251