

Transforming Ethnomusicology

Political, Social & Ecological Issues

Volume II

Edited by

BEVERLEY DIAMOND

AND

SALWA EL-SHAWAN CASTELO-BRANCO

FD SOZIAL- UND
KULTURANTHROPOLOGIE
in Zusammenarbeit mit der DFG

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Ethnomusicological Praxis: An Introduction Beverley Diamond and Salwa El-Shawan Castelo-Branco	1
1. A Sound Economy Jeff Todd Titon	26
2. Music for Global Human Development Michael Frishkopf	47
3. Reengaging Sound Praxis in the Real World: Politico- Epistemological Dimensions of Dialogue and Participation in Knowledge Production Samuel Araujo	67
4. Silenced Registers of Ethnomusicological Academic Labor under Neoliberalism Ana Hofman	83
5. Sonic Mapping and Critical Citizenship: Reflections on Limerick Soundscapes Aileen Dillane and Tony Langlois	96
6. The Earth Is (Still) Our Mother: Traversing Indigenous Landscapes through Sacred Geographies of Song Chad S. Hamill (čnaq'ymi)	115
7. The Modernity of the Songlines Rhoda Roberts	126
8. Music Endangerment, Repatriation, and Intercultural Collaboration in an Australian Discomfort Zone Sally Treloyn and Rona Goonginda Charles	133
9. Dancing Domba : Intersections of Ethnomusicology, Music Education, and Research with Children and Young People Andrea Emberly and Mudzunga Junniah Davhula	148
10. Ethical Friction: IRBs, Ethnomusicological Ethics, and Music in an American Jail Andy McGraw	164

11. Ethnomusicology and the Meeting of Knowledges in Music: The Inclusion of Masters of Traditional Musics as Lecturers in Higher Education Institutions José Jorge de Carvalho	185
Contributors' and Editors' Personal Statements	207
Bibliography	217
Index	249