

Contents

Introduction

Konstantin Butz and Robert A. Winkler 9

Changing Perspectives: From Participation to Observation (Autoethnography of a Punk Researcher)

Gerfried Ambrosch 27

Milo Goes to College, Ellen Goes to Grad School: The Series of Events that Turned an Afterschool Hobby into a Hardcore Pursuit of Punk Rock

Ellen Bernhard 35

A Network of Hardcore Researchers: Punk Studies, Punk Scholarship, Punk Pedagogy

Russ Bestley, Mike Dines, Francis Stewart 45

"Dancing on the Corpses' Ashes": On Post-Hardcore Performance and Erased Nonwhite Bodies

Marcus Clayton 61

Hardcore, Punk, and Academia: A Conversation between Brian Cogan and Kevin Dunn

Brian Cogan and Kevin Dunn 79

"Survival of the Streets": Krishna Consciousness and Religion in Hardcore Punk at the End of the Cold War

Shaun Cullen 91

Something Better Change: Hardcore and the Promise of a Liberating Punk Education
David Ensminger 111

“There is no hope for the USA”: Bad Brains
and The Sounds of Race in DC Hardcore
Shayna Maskell.....127

Ms. Bob Davis and Hardcore California: A Conversation About a Forty-Year-Old Document of Hardcore Research
Ms. Bob Davis in Conversation with Konstantin Butz and Robert A. Winkler147

Writing from Hardcore: Interwoven Lines of Becoming Alain Müller and Marion Schulze 157

White Punks in the Chocolate City: Hardcore and Local History in Washington, DC
Alan Parkes 171

The Musical Aesthetics of Hardcore: Straightforward, Strident, and Antagonistic
David Pearson 189

Adventures of a DIY Oral Historian: How the Hardcore Punk Rock
Scene of the 1980s Continues to Influence My Life as a Writer
Stacy Russo..... 201

Whose Loud Fast Rules? – Always Already Post-Hardcore
Daniel S. Traber 215

“Have You Never Been Mellow?” – Joy and Ugliness in Punk and Hardcore Aesthetics
Maxwell Tremblay 227

Queer-feminist Hardcore/Punk: Academic Research and Community Support in the Age of the Pandemic
Katharina Wiedlack 235

Contributors 253

Acknowledgements 275