

Making and Breaking of Borders

Ethnological Interpretations,
Presentations, Representations

Edited by

Teppo Korhonen, Helena Ruotsala & Eeva Uusitalo

Contents

Teppo Korhonen Collapsing and building of borders Foreword	9
INTRODUCTION
Anna-Maria Åström What are the borders in a borderless society? Territorialisation processes on the national and local level in everyday life	19
Bertalan Andrásfalvy About peoples' imaginary borders	37
TIME
Tamás Mohay New borders and new questions in ethnography – The perspectives at the turn of millennium	45
Attila Paládi-Kovács Particular time-systems of the traditional communities in Hungary	55
US AND THEY
Terje Anepaio Boundaries in the Soviet society – The case of the repressed	67
Eeva Uusitalo Traditional knowledge as a living strategy – The case of an unemployed woman	79

László Kósa
Prejudice and farm economy – Linguistic, ethnic and social boundaries	87
Outi Fingerroos
Concrete, complex and abstract borders – Funerals in the Lutheran area of the Karelian Isthmus between 1917–1939	97
Balázs Balogh
Boundaries of prestige groups in a local peasant community – The example of village Táp, Transdanubia, Hungary	111
Helena Ruotsala
Nomadising identities in the northern fringe area	119
Imre Gráfik
“Triple Frontier” – from national trauma to meeting place of the peoples	129
Katriina Siivonen
An archipelago of identities – Producing locality in the South-west-Finland archipelago	147
Zsuzsa Szarvas
Jewish culture – peasant culture – Symbolical and real borderlines between the two cultures	160
Mari Poikolainen
When a Finn encounters Nepal – “I” creating boundaries with “Us”	167
 SPACE AND PLACE
Pekka Leimu
Breaking cultural borders – Central Europe and Middle Europe ..	185
János Kodolányi, Jr.
Some questions on the ethnological definition of a Hungarian region	200
Hanna Kyläniemi and Päivi Rahikainen
Northern Finland – a special cultural area?	211
Mária Flórián
Cultural micro-regions in Northern Hungary and the maintenance of their boundaries	222

Balázs Borsos
Cultural regions of the Hungarian-speaking territory defined by computer	230
Lajos Kemecsi
Borders and traffic	246
Pia Olsson
City as a nostalgic home district	254
Katariina Heikkilä
Agriculture and rural areas today – a question of boundaries	261
 SIGNS AND SYMBOLS
Katri Kaunisto
The banners of the labour movement – symbols of class barriers	275
Terhi Torkki
Work or hobby – does the difference really exist? The case of making textiles by farmer’s wife in Iitti, Finland	280
 TEACHING AND BREAKING THE BORDERS
Zoltán Fejős
Museums: border makers, border breakers	293
Mónika Lackner
Pasture romance – Installation, national self-representation and cultural demarcation at the Vienna World Fair 1873	303
Hanneleena Savolainen
Categories of knowledge in a museum – A case study from the Vanhalinna Museum, Lieto, Finland	310
Miklós Cseri
The Hungarian Open Air Museum as a medium between past and present – Challenges and answers	318
Sanna Kaisa Spoof
The changing role of the ethnologist – from folk culture research to folk culture preservation – The revival of the Khanty and Mansi folk culture as a case in point	323