

Contents

Acknowledgements	7
Preface	9
Introduction	11
Why Niue?	11
The Theoretical Background	12
About this Book	14
Ethical Considerations	15
The Rock of Polynesia: Niue's Geographical Setting	17
From Nukututaha to God's Own Country: a short History	21
Prehistory: Nukututaha – the Land that stands alone	21
European Contact and Theocracy: from "Savage Island" to the "Island of Love"	28
Colonial Times: from Patuiki Vika to Matua Niu Sila	40
He called a Spade a bloody Shovel: the Larsen incident	44
Self-Governance: Sustainability and Migration	49
To Foreign Shores: the Continuity of Niuean work Migration, forced and voluntary	53
The Peruvian Slave Trade	54
"Some of the Most Valuable Labourers in the Pacific": Missionaries, Plantation Labourers, Seamen and Guano Diggers	58
For King and England: Niueans in World War I	66
A Foot in Two Countries: some Elements of Niuean Social Structure and their Dynamics in Niue and New Zealand	70
Niue	70
Politics	70
Villages	74
The Ekalesia Niue and other Denominations	83
Women's Groups	94
Life-Cycle Events and the Reciprocity in Donations	96
Land Rights	107
Auckland	111
Statistical Data on the Niueans in New Zealand	111
Invisible Villages in the City	112
The Ekalesia Niue and other Denominations	113
Weaving Groups	117
Life-Cycle Events	128
Land Rights	130
Coping with Lives in Two Countries	131
To New Zealand and Back	131
Tupuna, motua, matua, lilifu – some Aspects of Social Standing	136
Dealing with Conflicts	141
Dealing with the Threat of Loss of Culture	141
Being Niuean – marking Ethnicity	144
Fakaalofa	148
Dealing with the Supernatural	149
Sharing and Keeping Knowledge	151

Weaving	157
History of Weaving	157
Niuean Plants used in Weaving and Colouring	167
Coconut	167
Pandanus	167
Arrowroot	180
Hibiscus Bast	183
New Zealand Flax	183
Dyeing	184
Techniques	188
Variety of Woven Items	188
Mats	191
Baskets and Bags, Trays and Tablemats	197
Hats	221
Fans	233
Dance Costumes	238
Non-Woven and Woven Accessories	239
Necklaces and Garlands	239
Flowers	250
Usage of Woven Objects	258
 A Vibrant Society: Summary and Conclusion	263
Appendices	267
Appendix 1: Poster for Makefu Show Day	268
Appendix 2: Niuean Weaving Groups in Auckland, 2002–2005	269
Appendix 3: Niuean Classification of Fa	274
Appendix 4: Preparing Fa	276
Appendix 5: Kinds of Niuean Weaving	280
Appendix 6: Research Methods	291
 Glossary	293
Bibliography	296
Illustration Credits	310
Colour Plates	311