

The Art of Survival

Gender and History in Europe, 1450–2000

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements, i

Introduction, 1

Ruth Harris and Lyndal Roper

Gender and Material Culture

His and Hers: Gender, Consumption and Household Accounting in Eighteenth-Century England, 12

Amanda Vickery

Gender and Welfare in Modern Europe, 39

Jane Lewis

Objects and the Culture of Emotions

Rooms to Share: Convent Cells and Social Relations in Early Modern Italy, 55

Silvia Evangelisti

Concubinage and the Church in Early Modern Münster, 72

Simone Laqua

Religious Legacies, Friendship and Politics

A Confessor and His Spiritual Child: François de Sales, Jeanne de Chantal, and the Foundation of the Order of the Visitation, 101

Ruth Manning

Letters to Lucie: Spirituality, Friendship, and Politics During the Dreyfus Affair, 118

Ruth Harris

Trauma, Loss and Survival

Witchcraft, Nostalgia, and the Rural Idyll in Eighteenth-Century Germany, 139

Lyndal Roper

The 'Religious Sense' in a Post-War Secular Age, 159

Alex Owen

Generations and History

Olwen Hufton's 'Poor', Richard Cobb's 'People', and the Notions of the longue durée in French Revolutionary Historiography, 178

Colin Jones