

Acknowledgements	5
Chapter 1: Introduction	15
A. Subject Matter	15
B. State of Research	21
C. Research Objectives and Methodology	24
D. Remarks Regarding Terminology	27
I. 'Nationality' and 'Foreign Nationals'	27
II. 'Sanfei' as Political and Legal Concept	30
Chapter 2: Framework of Chinese Immigration Legislation	35
A. Introduction	35
B. Early Normative Framework of Exit and Entry Administration	37
I. Foundations of the Current Legal Framework on Immigration	38
II. Immigration Legislation in the Context of Economic Reforms	41
III. First Immigration Legislation in the Context of Economic Reforms	46
IV. Provisions on Exit-Entry Administration in Other Laws	54
1. Establishment of Administrative Law	55
2. Relevant Provisions in Criminal Law	56
3. Administration of the Employment of Foreign Nationals	57
4. Administration of Permanent Residence of Foreign Nationals	58
V. Shortcomings of the 1985 Legal Framework	60
VI. Summary	63
C. Revision of Immigration Legislation and the Making of the Current Law	65
I. Consideration of Local Implementation During National Legislation	67
II. Guangdong Province as Experimental Region for Immigration Legislation	73
III. The Revised Law on Exit-Entry Administration	80
IV. Summary	88
D. Structure of Immigration Authorities	89

I. Development of Structures in Exit–Entry Administration	90
II. Current Structure of Competent Authorities in Exit–Entry Administration	91
1. Vertical Incentive Systems	98
2. Horizontal Co-operation Structures	102
III. Summary	108
E. Conclusion	111
Chapter 3: Targeting Regulatory Failure with Sanfei Campaigns	115
A. Introduction	115
I. Development of Research on Campaigns in China	116
II. Definition of ‘Campaign’	124
III. Statistics on Illegal Immigration	127
B. Conceptual Framework	132
I. Regulatory Failure in the Context of Exit–Entry Administration	133
II. VAN ROOIJ: Campaigns as a Means of Law Enforcement	135
III. HE: Law-Enforcement Campaigns in the Area of Migration	137
IV. BIDDULPH, COONEY, and ZHU: Regulatory Failure Campaigns	139
V. Summary	142
C. Information on Sanfei Campaigns	143
I. Newspaper Announcements and Reports	146
II. Implementation Plans	148
III. Action Plans	151
IV. Summary	153
D. Drivers and Triggers for the Deployment of Sanfei Campaigns	153
I. Temporal and Geographical Patterns	154
II. Triggering Events of Sanfei Campaigns	162
III. Addressees of Sanfei Campaigns	168
1. Communication to Foreign Nationals and the Chinese Public	168
2. Communication to Police Officials	171
IV. Summary	174
E. Application of Campaign Models on Sanfei Campaigns	175
I. Sanfei Campaigns as Law-Enforcement Campaigns	176
1. Central Coordination of Sanfei Campaigns	178
2. Top–Down Hierarchy in Organisation Structure	179
3. Experimental Character of Sanfei Campaigns	180
4. Involvement of the Public	181
II. Sanfei Campaigns as Regulatory Failure Campaigns	183

1. Utilisation of Horizontal and Vertical Organisation Structures	184
2. Entanglement of Campaigns with Law-Making Processes	185
III. Summary	188
F. Conclusion	189
Chapter 4: Current Legal Framework of Exit–Entry Administration	191
A. Introduction	191
B. Crossing the Border: Restriction of Entry and Exit	193
I. Non-Issuance or Revocation of Exit–Entry Documents	195
1. Exit–Entry Documents as Administrative Licences	195
2. Limitations to Legal Remedies in the Context of Exit–Entry Documents	199
II. Restriction of Exit and Entry at the Border	205
1. Legal Framework on Compulsory Measures and Compulsory Enforcement	207
a) Administrative Compulsory Measures	208
b) Administrative Compulsory Enforcement	210
2. Legal Remedies Against Restrictions of Exit and Entry	212
3. Restrictions of Entry and Exit in the Context of International Standards	215
III. Prosecution of Administrative and Criminal Offences Concerning Illegal Border Crossing	221
1. Administrative Punishment and Criminal Punishment in the Context of Offences Regarding Border Crossing	223
a) Punishment Based on Criminal Law	224
b) Legal Framework on Administrative Penalties	225
2. Definition of Illegal Exit or Entry	229
3. Delineation of Criminal Offences Concerning Border Crossing	232
a) Illegal Border Crossing	233
b) Assistance in and Organisation of Illegal Border Crossing	236
c) Illegal Provision, Falsification or Fraudulent Appropriation of Residence or Exit–Entry Documents	242
4. Penalties Against Illegal Entry and Visa Overstay in International Comparison	244
IV. Summary	248
C. Residence in China: Illegal Stay, Detention and Repatriation	250

I. Prosecution of Illegal Stay, Registration Issues, and Inconsistent Behaviour	251
1. Illegal Stay and Illegal Residence	251
2. Delineation of Illegal Stay from Registration Issues	253
3. Activities Inconsistent with the Cause of Stay	256
II. Repatriation and Deportation as Examples of Administrative Compulsion and Administrative Punishment	259
1. Order to Leave, Deportation and Repatriation	259
2. Limitations to Legal Remedies against Deportation or Repatriation	267
a) Suspension of Administrative Acts	270
b) Compatibility with International Standards	272
III. Detention for Investigation	275
1. Legal Remedies against Detention for Investigation in Comparison with International Standards	278
IV. Summary	280
D. Being Employed as a Foreign National in China	282
I. Definition of Illegal Employment	283
1. Illegal Employment According to the 1985 Law	284
2. Illegal Employment According to the 2012 Law	286
a) Definition of Illegal Employment and Employment of Foreign Nationals	286
b) Legal Provisions on Visa Application	289
c) Basic Prerequisites for Work	292
d) Sanctions for Illegal Employment	293
e) Subsumption	294
II. Framework Regarding Employment of Foreign Nationals	295
1. Establishment of a Legal Employment Relationship	296
2. Extension of an Employment Relationship	297
3. Change of Employer	298
III. Illegal Employment Handled by Courts	299
1. Claims Resulting from an Illegal Employment Relationship	300
2. Claims Resulting from Work-Study	303
IV. Summary	303
E. Conclusion	305
Chapter 5: Reform of Immigration Law: An Example of Symbolic Governance?	309
A. Summary of the Findings	310

B. Symbolic Legitimation as Explanatory Approach	316
C. Conclusion	319
List of References	321
A. Laws, Regulations, Political Directives, Treaties and Court Cases	321
B. Monographs, Articles in Periodicals, Edited Volumes and Reports	341