

Contents

Acknowledgements — IX

Prologue — XI

Introduction: Perspectives on Inheritance — 1

Theme and Structure — 1

Living in Debshala — 25

Part I: Property Rights and the State

1 Moments of Inheritance — 47

1.1 Introduction — 47

1.2 Women's Proprietary Position in the Hindu Family — 48

1.3 Changes under the Hindu Succession Act 1956 — 59

1.4 Gender Implications of Changes in 2005 — 66

2 Women as Legal Subject — 69

2.1 Introduction — 69

2.2 Making the Liberal Hindu Family: Daughters' Rights and the Amended Act of 2005 — 74

2.3 Legislating Family Morality: The Welfare Act of 2007 — 94

2.4 Comments — 105

Part II: Family and Ownership

3 The Embeddedness of Land Ownership — 111

3.1 Introduction — 111

3.2 An Engagement with the Debate on Gendering Land
Ownership — 113

3.3 Agricultural Land and Legal Disputes — 115

3.4 Situating Land Ownership — 125

4 The Land-Owning Women — 132

4.1 Introduction — 132

4.2 Widowhood and Multivocality: A Legitimate Ground of Claim — 133

4.3 'Broken' Lives: Estrangement and Returning Daughters — 152

4.4 Comments — 168

5 Women Without Ownership — 172

5.1 Introduction — 172

5.2 Visions of Intergenerationality and Morals of Inheritance — 177

5.3 Rewards of Service, Gifts of Love and Claims of Rights — 209

5.4 Comments — 225

Epilogue — 229

References — 235

Note on Translation and Transliteration — 251

List of Figures — 253

List of Tables — 255

List of Selected Acts, Bills and Legal Reports Discussed — 257

Index — 259

About the Author — 265