

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Acknowledgments	ix
TIFFANY N. FLORVIL AND VANESSA D. PLUMLY
Introduction: Rethinking Black German Studies	I
PART I German and Austrian Literature and History
37
SILKE HACKENESCH
1 'Hergestellt unter ausschließlicher Verwendung von Kakaobohnen deutscher Kolonien': On Representations of Chocolate Consumption as a Colonial Endeavor	39
NANCY P. NENNO
2 Here to Stay : Black Austrian Studies	71
MEGHAN O'DEA
3 Lucia Engombe's and Stefanie-Lahya Aukongo's Autobiographical Accounts of Solidaritätspolitik and Life in the GDR as Namibian Children	105
PART II Theory and Praxis
135
KIMBERLY ALECIA SINGLETARY
4 Everyday Matters: Haunting and the Black Diasporic Experience	137

KEVINA KING

- 5 Black, People of Color and Migrant Lives Should Matter:
Racial Profiling, Police Brutality and Whiteness in Germany 169

PART III Art and Performance 197

KIRA THURMAN

- 6 'Africa in European Evening Attire': Defining African American Spirituals and Western Art Music in Central Europe, 1870s–1930s 199

VANESSA D. PLUMLY

- 7 Re-Fashioning Postwar German Masculinity Through
Hip-Hop: The Man(l)y BlackWhite Identities of Samy Deluxe 235

JAMELE WATKINS

- 8 Performing Oppression and Empowerment in real life: Deutschland 277

MICHELLE M. WRIGHT

- Afterword 309

- Notes on Contributors 313

- Index 317